PARTY LEADERS TO CAMPAIGN

Sir Wilfrid and Mr. Borden to Take Active Part in Contest Earlier Than They Had First Planned

CONSERVATIVE CHIEF VISITING MONTREAL

Sir Daniel McMillan Expected to be Liberal Candidate in Winnipeg — Quebec Local Situation

OTTAWA, Aug. 1.—Owing to continued pressure brought to bear upon them by candidates for re-election to parliament, the leaders of both parties decided today to begin active campaigning early next week.

The rumor persists here that tariff reformers of England will enter the Canadian campaign with speakers and funds.

Mr. Borden at Montreal

MONTREAL, Aug. 1.—Mr. R. L. Borden arrived in the city this morning. During the day he called on a number of prominent members of his party and discussed with them plans for the campaign. Many conventions will be held this week and the leaders are busy arranging dates and places.

Winnipeg Candidates

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—D. C. Cameron, a well known business man of Winnipeg, today was sworn in as lieutenant-governor of Manitoba, to succeed Sir Daniel McMillan. Mr. Cameron stood for parliament on the Liberal ticket in Winnipeg in the last general election, and was defeated by Alexander Haggart by 1,500 votes. Sir Daniel McMillan's term of five years expired by limitation.

The Liberals decided to nominate Sir Daniel McMillan as candidate for Winnipeg, his opponent to be Hon. Robert Rogers. It was announced today that the Dominion government has taken in hand the preparation of the Winnipeg and Brandon lists out the hands of the provincial government and will appoint registration clerks and judges.

With a view to nominating Sir Daniel McMillan, his successor, D. C. Cameron, was hurriedly sworn in today, leaving Sir Daniel free.

Quebec Rumor

QUEBEC, Aug. 1.—The rumor that the provincial elections will be brought on before the federal elections is still in circulation. There was a meeting of the provincial cabinet at the parliament house this morning which was presided over by Premier Gouin and at which all members with the exception of Hon. Mr. Devlin were present. The rumor was given much credit in certain circles that the elections will take place eight days before the federal elections, and that another cabinet council will decide it.

CALIFORNIA SCANDAL

State Printer and Supply Firms Accused of Conspiracy to Steal from State

SACRAMENTO, August 1.—Coming closely upon its report to Governor Johnson that state printer W. W. Shannon and four printing supply firms have conspired to mulct the state of some $90,000, the state board of control today sent a written notice to Shannon forbidding him to use any of the material not yet paid for.

In all there is about $75,000 of such material on hand, and the action of the board is taken to indicate that the entire amount of supplies will be returned to the firms that furnished them, namely, the Zellerbach Paper Company, the H. S. Crocker Company, the E. J. Shattuck Co., and George D. Graham.

Incendiary Destroys Property

DUBUQUE, Ia., Aug. 1.—Fire of incendiary origin destroyed property valued at $190,000, distributed as follows: Spahn & Rose Lumber Co., $50,000; Wineckohorr Canning Company, $40,000; Kretchmer Manufacturing Company, manufacturers of plumbers' supplies, building and stock, $100,000.

Fire in Farnham, Quebec

FARNHAM, Que., Aug. 1.—Fire which originated in a warehouse in the rear of the fire station here raged for nearly six hours before it was placed under control. It had destroyed the entire business centre of the town, causing a loss of $250,000. The Montreal and St. Johns, Que., brigades were asked for assistance and both responded on special trains.

HOLDINGS ARE RICH

Valuable Property Secured by United States Steel Corporation with Tennessee Coal & Iron

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—That the ore and coal holdings acquired by the United States Steel Corporation in the absorption of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company in 1907 have a valuation of $200,000,000 was estimated from figures on the mineral holdings of the Tennessee company given today to the House of Representatives' steel committee. These figures were compiled by expert engineers.

In acquiring the Tennessee company, the United States Steel Corporation exchanged five per cent second bonds valued at $29,000,000, the transaction, according to those interested, having been brought about to prevent the collapse of the New York brokerage firm of Moore & Schley, which had made excessive loans with Tennessee Coal & Iron stock as collateral. The committee heard today the testimony of C. P. Perin, Walter Moore and W. M. Given, expert engineers, who appraised the deposits of the Birmingham field in 1904.

These men declared that the ore deposits of that region and their proximity to coal deposits estimated at nearly two billion tons, make that territory almost unparalleled from an ore producing standpoint.

Of the available ore in all the region the estimated holdings of the Tennessee Coal & Iron company were given as from 50 to 75 per cent.

The experts agreed that pig iron could be produced there $1 a ton cheaper than in the Pittsburg district and $3 a ton less than any other place in the world.

Winnipeg Car Robberies

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—The city police still continue their investigation into freight car robberies and last night unearthed $1,000 worth of stolen goods cached in an old shack rented by Chas. Thomas, one of the men now under arrest charged with thefts. The total value of goods now recovered by the police, amounts to $3,000. Seven arrests have been made and the prisoners will be arraigned tomorrow.

Montreal's Assessment

MONTREAL, Aug. 1.—Taxable property in Montreal possesses a value of $500,000,000, according to the special report prepared after the civic assessors had completed their annual amendments to the rolls. This represents an increase of $70,000,000 since last year in taxable property, the increase being largely due to the fact that the city has decided to tax property in the harbor of Montreal, and has added $50,000,000 to the list as representing assessable values to property between the retaining wall and the St. Lawrence.

HON. R. McBRIDE IS ENTHUSIASTIC

Will Go Into Political Campaign With All His Might on Arrival Here—At Winnipeg Yesterday

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—Premier McBride passed through from Ottawa last night. He is enthusiastic over the political situation and the prospects of the Conservatives in British Columbia. He says that province will return seven members of the party.

Mr. McBride said: "There is no doubt what British Columbia will do in the coming election. Seven for the Conservatives and a solid front will be the answer of the coast province to Sir Wilfrid Laurier's appeal to the country in September."

The feeling there, he stated, was very strong not only against reciprocity, but against the entire policy as administered by the Laurier government.

Mr. McBride was in the city for an hour on his way home from England, where he attended the coronation. He also expressed himself as being more than pleased with the outlook for a Conservative victory at the polls in September.

Asked if there was any truth in the report that he would contest a seat in British Columbia for the federal house, Mr. McBride replied that so far all he had heard in connection with the matter was what he had seen in the papers.

"I have not been offered the candidacy of any seat and have not made up my mind in case such should be offered. If I should be offered a nomination it will not take me long to make up my mind one way or the other, but I know this, just as soon as I get back I am going into the campaign with all my might, with the ultimate result, I hope, which in fact I am sure of, and that is, that British Columbia will return seven members to the Dominion house."

Accompanying Premier McBride was J. F. Garden of Vancouver, and W. A. McDonald of Nelson, B. C.

Mr. McBride stated that he never felt better in his life and that no campaign, no matter how bitter, would prove too strenuous for him.

Turkey and Montenegro

CETTINJE, Montenegro, Aug. 1.—It is announced that an agreement has been reached between Montenegro and Turkey upon the disputed points of the amnesty to the Armenian rebels and that the Montenegrin government will endeavor to induce the Malissori to return to their homes.

Against Vivisection.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 1.—The international animal protection and anti-vivisection congress opened here today with 200 delegates in attendance, among them many Americans. After the Rigsdag had voted a subvention for the congress, King Frederick promised to give it his patronage, but later he refused to do this when he learned that the congress was against vivisection.

GERMANS JOIN WITH RUSSIANS

Object to Money for German Hospital at Teheran Being Paid Through New Treasurer General

CONTRARY TO TERMS OF CONVENTION

Action is Taken by German Minister Similar to that of Russian—Persia Makes Protest

TEHERAN, Aug. 1.—Count Quadt, the German minister here, has addressed a note to the Persian government protesting against the payment of the subvention to the German hospital in Teheran through W. Morgan Shuster, the new treasurer-general, instead of through M. Mornard, former chief of customs, declaring that such action would be contrary to the convention between Germany and Persia.

The protest of the Russian minister, M. Poklexski- Kozell, against the payment of Russian coupons and fixed charges through the treasurer-general was based on the same general ground as that taken by Count Quadt, but whereas the Russian minister gave Mr. Shuster credit for financial and organizing ability, Count Quadt alludes sarcastically to the treasurer-general as "a certain Mr. Shuster."

It is understood here that the Persian government has instructed its representative in Berlin to complain against Count Quadt's attitude.

CUBAN REBELS

Acevado and His Little Band Disappear From View of Authorities—Island Is Quiet.

HAVANA, Aug. 1.—No trace has been found tonight of General Guillermo Acevado and the members of an armed party that took the field at Regla late last night after having issued a manifesto denouncing the administration of President Gomez as corrupt, and calling upon the executive to resign.

The government is taking extraordinary measures to capture the fugitives.

General Machada, secretary of the interior, informed the Associated Press tonight that there was no evidence of disturbances in any part of the island.

Acevado is a man of little importance and small influence. Recently he returned from the United States, and is reported to have boasted that he obtained there promises of financial support for a revolutionary movement, and also a shipload of arms and ammunition.

Panama Politics

PANAMA, Aug. 1.—The political situation here grows more complicated. The friends of President Arosemena's administration openly assert that all government employes who do not favor his re-election will be replaced by those who do. This unprecedented campaign on behalf of the national executive was begun yesterday with the issuance of a decree replacing Ramon Acevedo, secretary of government and chief of the cabinet, with Feliodoro Patino, who has been the secretary of public instruction.

FERNIE MINERS REJECT REPORT

Mass Meeting Considers Rev. Mr. Gordon's Findings as Chairman of Board—Adverse Resolution Passed

APPARENTLY MEANS STRIKE CONTINUATION

FERNIE, B.C., Aug. 1.—At a largely attended mass meeting today which filled the Grand theatre to its capacity the miners of this camp voted unanimously for a resolution repudiating the Gordon report on the conciliation. Some 800 men were present and no one spoke against the resolution.

Coming as it did upon the heels of the report from the Corbin camp, where the men voted to go to work, it is as much of a surprise as was yesterday's news.

This again changes the aspect of the case, and if the action is a fair indication of other camps, where similar conditions exist, it would seem that the vote on Friday will be adverse to the proposals of the Gordon report.

The resolution was very short and unequivocal, stating that the men of this camp are opposed to the conditions contained in the Gordon report.

There are 1,000 members in this local and the vote here will be a heavy factor in deciding the question of returning to work under an agreement framed upon the majority report of the conciliation board.

FIRE UNCHECKED

San Bernardino Range Likely to Be Left Treeless—One Summer Resort Destroyed

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Aug. 1.—The mountain fire which for a week has been devastating the slopes of the San Bernardino range north of this city tonight stretched for four miles along the backbone of the range, and the whole valley is illuminated by the glare of the burning timber. The exhausted rangers and their forces have given up their fight, and it is believed that the fire will run unchecked until the entire range is laid bare.

Millions of dollars worth of pine timber are either already turned into charred stumps, or are in the path of the blaze. At 5:45 p. m. today the fire wiped out Clifton Heights, a small resort near the summit at Skyland, the occupants of the camp narrowly escaping with their lives before the rush of flames. The fire passed Clifton and into Houston Flats, where there are miles of unprotected timber. Backfiring on the east side of Houston Flats to prevent the flames from the direction of City Creek entering the timber, got beyond control of the firefighters and swept into the flats from that side.

Skyland, which has been threatened by blazes in the brush half a dozen times, tonight was confronted with almost certain destruction.

No lives are imperilled, as the camp was almost completely deserted several days ago. The Crest road, the artery of travel to the resorts all along the mountains, runs through Skyland, and consequently all efforts to carry food to the rangers east of that point have been temporarily abandoned.

Storm Ravages Niagara District

TORONTO, Aug. 1.—Ninety per cent of the crop in the richest sections of Niagara peninsula fruit belt was destroyed by a terrific hail storm Sunday. Between St. Catherines and Winona, small fruit trees were stripped of their branches and many farmers face financial ruin. Hundreds of chickens were killed by the hail.

Supposed Train Robber

HARLEM, Mont., Aug. 1.—It is believed the bandit who was killed yesterday while attempting to rob the First National Bank here, was one of the band that attempted to hold up the Northern Pacific train at Fargo two weeks ago. One of the train robbers, it is known, was shot in the shoulder and an autopsy held over the dead bandit today showed a bullet wound in the shoulder apparently recently inflicted. The pursuit of the other two robbers who escaped from here after their partner was killed was practically abandoned today.

OFFER REWARDS TO ASSASSINS

Mexican Miners Wish to Bring About Murder of Three Mine Officials—More Rioting is Feared at El Oro

EL ORO, Mex., Aug. 1.—Mine managers learned today that three thousand pesos have been offered to anyone who will assassinate Frank Jenkins, the assistant manager of the El Oro mines, and 1,000 pesos each will be paid for the life of his brother, William Jenkins, and James Dunn, mine experts. All are Englishmen and have remained here in the interest of their company. F. M. Payton, the manager, also learned that two bombs had been placed in the mine, and he has asked the president of the republic to order a rigid investigation.

None of the 1,000 miners in this camp, nor those in the Dos Estrellas, five kilometers distant, reported for work today. The towns are filled with idle men. Approximately a thousand troops are on hand.

The management of the El Oro has refused to consider any demands of the men, and has closed the property. Only the stamp mill and smelter are being operated.

Fearing a repetition of riots like yesterday's, when a number of the strikers were killed and wounded by soldiers, many foreign women were sent out of the camp today. There is still evident a strong anti-foreign sentiment.

English Aviator Killed

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Gerald Napier, a young English aviator, was killed tonight while flying with a passenger at Brooklands. His companion was not injured.

Large Customs Receipts

TORONTO, Aug. 1.—The estimate of the customs revenue for July is in the neighborhood of $1,000,000. It is expected that the returns will show an increase of from $30,000 to $35,000, compared with the corresponding month of last year.

Canada's Advantage

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Dr. Clifford, interviewed, predicts that Canada will become not only the strategic centre of the Empire's development but also to a very large extent of the development of the North American continent.

Edmonton Water Supply Cut Off

EDMONTON, Alta., Aug. 1.—The bursting of the twenty-inch water main cut off the city supply and nearly drowned the engineer and several workmen. The health authorities say if the water is off for many days an epidemic of typhoid is likely.

French Cruiser Goes to Hayti

SYDNEY, C. B., Aug. 1.—Rush orders received from Paris took the French cruiser D'Estrees out of this port at full speed today, bound for Hayti. The warship arrived here Sunday. Her orders are to proceed to Hayti to protect French residents and French interests during the revolution there.

CRUISER NIOBE IN GRAVE PERIL

Water Gaining in Spite of Her Own Pumps and Those of Wrecking Steamers—Settling by Stern

ONLY TEN FEET AFT IS NOW VISIBLE

Vessel is Anchored in Seven Fathoms of Water in Clarke's Harbor, on West Coast of Nova Scotia

HALIFAX, Aug. 1.—The condition of the cruiser Niobe at Clarke's Harbor, where she is anchored, is of grave peril for the warship. A despatch from there tonight says that in spite of all that her pumps can do, and although the pumping apparatus on the wrecking steamers is kept going night and day, the water is slowly gaining and the Niobe is settling by the stern. This evening not more than ten feet aft was visible above the surface.

The cruiser is anchored in seven fathoms of water, three quarters of a mile off the west head in Clarke's Harbor.

May be Beached

CLARKE'S HARBOR, N. S., Aug. 1.—Her pumps unable to dispose of the water pouring in through rents in her hull, the protected cruiser Niobe, flagship of Canada's navy, which was impaled for five hours on Southwest Ledge, off Cape Sable, early on Sunday, is sinking in this harbor, where she was towed following the accident. She will be beached tomorrow if it is found she cannot be controlled.

ENDS IN DISASTER

Attempted Voyage of Three Men in a Small Boat From America to Africa —Are Rescued by Steamer.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The three-man crew of the forty-foot sloop Theresa, which left Providence, R.I., on June 14 for the coast of Africa, reached New York tonight on the steamer Brika, from Huelva, with a harrowing tale of hardship aboard their vessel which ended with their rescue 120 miles west of St. Michaels. The Theresa was left to the mercy of the waves.

Captain Joaquin Rene, Joseph Fonseca and Manuel Andredo set sail from Providence nearly seven weeks ago to engage in fishing off the coast of Africa. Three days out the little vessel, said to be over fifty years old, encountered a southwest gale which started her leaking. From that time on it was necessary to keep a man at the pump continually.

Captain Rene held to his course, but storm after storm broke over the sloop, carrying away the rudder and straining the vessel so badly that ropes had to be passed around her and tightened to hold her together. After the Theresa had been buffeted by wind and wave for 33 days, and when all her sails and deck gear had had been washed away, the Brika hove in sight. One of the ship's boats put out to the Theresa and with much difficulty resuced the trio.

Captain Rene is planning to get another boat and start for Africa again next October. His crew of two say they will accompany him.

SEVEN DROWNED IN ST. LAWRENCE

Ferry Steamer Capsizes Through Striking Shoal in River — Seventy-Five Passengers Thrown into Water

FOUR OF VICTIMS ARE IDENTIIFED

MASSENA, N.Y., Aug. 1.—Seven persons were drowned today in the St. Lawrence river when the ferry steamer Syracuse struck a shoal eight miles below this city, capsizing and hurling its seventy-five passengers into the water. Four bodies have been recovered.

The victims whose bodies were recovered: Misses Hattie and Nellie Parker, sisters, of Ogdensburg; and Miss Ada Dewey and Floyd Hackett, both of Massena.

The identity of three persons who, according to the captain's tally, are missing, is not known.

Former Shah Disappears

TEHERAN, Aug. 1.—It is reported here that Mohammed Ali Mirza left Astrabad and embarked at Gumesh Tepe for an unknown destination. The British and Russian legations sent identical notes to the Persian government recognizing that the ex-Shah had forfeited the pension which he received while in exile and adding that as he is now in Persian territory they cannot intervene or mix up in the present struggle.

ARBITRATION TREATIES

President Hopes to Send Those with Britain and France to Senate at This Session

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—President Taft said today that he expected to send the arbitration treaty between the United States and Great Britain, and probably the treaty with France, to the senate before the special session adjourned. Final arrangements for the signing of the treaty were made at the White House today by Chandler Anderson, counsellor of the state department, and the secretary to the President, Mr. Hilles. Secretary Knox will sign for the United States, and Ambassador Bryce is understood to be on the way from his summer home at Bar Harbour to sign for Great Britain.

The French treaty, with Mr. Knox's name attached, will be sent to Paris by special messenger, to be exchanged for one bearing the signature of the French minister of foreign affairs.

Because this exchange with France must be carried out, it is possible that the French treaty will not be sent to the senate at this session.

The President is hopeful that quick action will be had in that body.

THROWN FROM WINDOW

Strange Tragedy in Which Life of St. Louis Woman Was Involved —Case Still Mystery.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 1.—A witness to the tragedy in which Mrs. Max Judell, wife of a traveling salesman, last night lost her life, when she fell, or was thrown from the window of a cheap hotel here, was discovered by the police tonight. A negress who lives opposite the mouth of the alley in which the dead woman was found, told the police she was sleeping near a front window of her room. She was awakened by a loud noise, and looking out, saw what later proved to be the body of Mrs. Judell, fall from the window of the hotel.

A few moments later, the negress said, she saw a man emerge from the hotel entrance, go to the mouth of the alley where the body lay, look down upon it for a minute and then leisurely walk away. She says she later saw a second man emerge from the hotel, but more hastily than the first.

Several suspects have been arrested but none has been identified by the proprietor and clerk of the hotel where Mrs. Judell passed part of last night with a man.

A search for this man continues. The police are tracing the movements of a well known business man who is believed to know something of the tragedy.

LONDON VIEWS ON NAVY MATTER

Compromise Nature of Arrangement Reached at Imperial Conference is Pointed to—Dominions to Judge

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The Morning Post, anent the naval memorandum, says that as now issued it is based rather upon the political exigencies of the three democratic governments, but that it will probably be revised in accordance with insight into natural conditions of war.

The Times, commenting on the memorandum, states that with good will on all sides, with mutual forbearance, and with mutual concession, one of the most difficult of problems has been solved, to combine complete local autonomy in times of peace with organic solidarity and traditions, training and discipline at all times, with absolute strategic control and unity in times of war. "In so far as any of the dominions affected being prepared to place their naval forces at the disposal of the Imperial government, it will be held by some that the conditions are limited, and that the whole arrangement is vitiated and rendered largely nugatory. We entirely repudiate that view. We have just confidence in the patriotism of the Dominions. The condition embodied in the memorandum is only an expression of an accepted doctrine that whether the Dominions shall participate in any war in which the Mother Country is engaged, in so far as it is not determined by the action of the enemy, must be determined exclusively by the government of the overseas dominion, and not in any degree by the Imperial government."

The Manchester Guardian says that it is an ingenious arrangement designed to reconciliate colonial and imperial rights. Legally in time of war the Dominion navies would become belligerents. This, however, would depend almost entirely upon the attitude of the hostile power. While they might be treated as enemies' ships, they would doubtless be left alone in most cases.

LIBERAL PEERS ARE CANVASSED

Viscount Morley Asks Whether Their Votes will be Ready, if Needed, for Carrying of the Veto Bill in Lords

HOPES TO OUTNUMBER HALSBURY FACTION

Estimated that Sixty to Seventy Liberal Members of House will Attend—Unionist Votes May be Cast

LONDON, August 1.—Head counting in the House of Lords on the veto bill has now been transferred to the Liberal side of the chamber. Viscount Morley has written to all the Liberal peers, intimating that the veto bill will be submitted to the Lords again, probably on August 9, and after referring to the positive intention of the Halsburyites, in view of this emergency, asks whether he may count upon their attendance in the chamber on that date.

This move is interpreted to mean that the government now is confident of its ability to outvote the Halsburyites without the necessity of creating more peers. It is estimated that from sixty to seventy Liberals will attend the session, while it is tolerably certain that the Earl of Halsbury cannot muster fifty votes. It is considered more likely that he will be able to gather in only 20 to 30.

Further, it is still expected that several of the Unionist peers will vote with the government, although the bulk of them will follow Lord Lansdowne's advice and abstain from voting.

EIGHT INMATES BURN

Fire in Hamilton Asylum Nearly Causes Awful Holocaust—Some of the Injured May Die.

HAMILTON, Ont., Aug. 1.—Fire early this morning which broke out on the top floor of the main building of the Hamilton Asylum for the Insane caused the deaths and the injury of many others, some of whom are probably fatally hurt and hundreds of patients went into hysetrics before the flames were controlled.

The fire started at 1.30 in the storeroom near hall D., on the top floor and spread rapidly. Night Watchman Fred Bassett, who discovered it, turned in an alarm for the asylum fire department and this was followed by a hurried call for the city brigade.

The asylum department was powerless to check the flames. Had it not been for Hamilton's new auto fire truck which climbed the steep hill at a twelve-mile clip, the disaster would probably have been greater. Three other city companies and a steamer were sent up. By the time they arrived the top of the building was a roaring mass of flames.

Hundreds of people from the city who were attracted by the red glare that lit up the sky witnessed a series of spectacular and heroic deeds. With life nets spread out city firemen caught patient after patient as they dropped or were thrown from the top floors. Some of the patients clung to the eaves and cried piteously for assistance.

Wealthy Russian Lady Dead

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 1.—Mme. Moronzoff, owner of the largest cotton mills in Russia, died today. She leaves a fortune of $40,000,000.

Sound Steamer Aground

SEATTLE, Aug. 1.—The Sound steamer Vashon, which plies between Everett and Maxwelton, went aground on Possession Point with several passengers aboard tonight. Tugs went from Everett at midnight to pull the vessel off at high tide. The Vashon is aground at the point where the British steamer Hazel Dollar struck several years ago. Reports received here say that the Vashon is in no danger.

Horse Plunges Into Crowd

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., Aug. 1.—Several persons were injured, some of them probably fatally, when the horse ridden by Quartermaster-Sergeant Horace Ragle, of the First Batalion, Second Regiment, C. N. G., became unmanageable during the carnival parade here today and plunged through a crowd of hundreds of spectators. W. L. Bliss, a Denver newspaperman, a former cavalryman of the United States army, threw the animal and held it until assistance arrived.

SOCIALISTS ELECT TO SERVE SENTENCE

Seven Men Found Guilty of Obstructing Traffic Go to Jail—Heavy Budget in the Police Court

There were in all 18 cases of various offences, which came up before Magistrate Jay in the police court yesterday, which was by far the greatest number of cases with which his honor has had to deal at one sitting for sometime past. The majority of the cases were disposed of, while the remainder were adjourned until a later date, when there would be more time to hear the evidence in connection thereof. There were, of course, the usual grist of drunks, and many others accused of theft, cruelty to animals, fraud and several other bylaw cases. There were so many prisoners, when the court opened that it was necessary to dispose of the accused in relays, and fill the prisoners' cage three different times.

The seven Socialists, who on Monday were found guilty of obstructing the traffic, and fined $20 or ten days, returned to the court yesterday morning and informed the magistrate, that they did not intend paying the fine. They had no property, and were not able to meet the fine imposed, they alleged. They were filed out of the court room into the jail where they will remain for the next ten days.

In the case of Ging, the chinaman charged with selling liquor without a license, and in which case judgment was reserved by the magistrate last week, the magistrate decided that the accused was not guilty of the offence, and accordingly the case was dismissed in court yesterday.

In acquitting the accused, the magistrate said, "I have come to the conclusion that the Chinese evidence for the prosecution is so tainted with motive, that it is not safe for me to rely upon it to the extent of recording a conviction." He didn't consider that there was sufficient evidence on the part of the prosecution to warrant a conviction.

Peter Fahey and Fred Meyers, charged with fighting on Store street, were each fined $15, with the option of two weeks in jail. They both bore the results of rough handling about their faces, but maintained that it was just a "friendly quarrel."

Valisamio Paul, a Greek fruit merchant, charged Alex. Auchterlonie with common assault. He was found guilty and fined $10 or ten days. According to the complainant, the accused entered his store and asked for fruit and upon being told the price, remonstrated upon the enormous prices and began swearing at the merchant. The argument waxed warm, until finally he claims that the accused grabbed him by the mouth and in other ways assaulted him.

Wrong Mail Box.

Claude Graham made a very severe mistake on Monday while mailing his letters and one which cost him $10 in the police court yesterday. Mr. Graham said that he had not been in this city very long, and that in mailing his letters, he had mistaken the fire alarm box at the corner of Yates and Wharf streets, for the mail box, and while thinking he was properly disposing of his letters, he was in reality turning in a fire alarm, which caused the brigade a useless run. The accused told his story straightforwardly, and did not have the appearance of a person who would wilfully call out the firemen when there was no need. The magistrate, however, although he assured the accused that he did not believe he wilfully turned in the alarm, though it better that he should enlarge the amount in the police coffers, as a lesson to be a little more particular in future, and accordingly imposed the fine of $10.

Robert Henderson, who is a past-master in the art of loafing, and lounging about, or doing anything other than work, was found guilty of vagrancy in the police court yesterday, and sent to jail for three months, where he will be compelled to work, and at the kind of labor which offers no renumeration. Henderson has been in court on several different occasions in answer to this charge, and each time he has a different story to tell. His latest yarn is to the effect that he was waiting for a certain sum of money, which was coming to him for painting which he had done. He didn't know the number of the house nor the street on which it was located, so the court thought that time had better be given him in which to locate that house, and if possible recover his money.

For driving their horses over a bridge at a faster rate of speed than a walk, G. Mills and P. Hall were each fined $5.

ONLY LEGALLY DEAD

Washington State Man Objects to Court Administration of His State While He Is Alive.

SEATTLE, Aug. 1.—Joseph Grey, who was judicially declared to be dead by Judge A. W. Frater on December 31, 1910, walked into the county hospital today, denied that he had departed this life and demanded that an attorney who had been appointed administrator of his estate relinquish the property. Mr. Grey is alive and well, according to his emphatic declaration, and is wondering who is going to pay for the expenses of administration.

The error came about through the loss a year ago of Mr. Grey's bank-book and some legal papers. They were found by a stranger who died at the county hospital where he had given the name entered in the bankbook as his own.

When he died, an attorney, learning that there was no heirs had himself appointed administrator and was preparing to wind up the affairs of the estate when he found that checks regularly signed were being drawn against the bank account. In the meantime the real Joseph Grey of Chelan, learned that he was judicially dead and that his estate was in the hands of an administrator and hurried to Seattle to rescue his property.

Drowned in Red River.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—After befooling companions with a cry of drowning and giving them the "ha ha" when they swam to his assistance, Corporal Dixon of Strathcona's Horse, got into real difficulty and was drowned in Red River in full view of his companions, who, believing his cries for assistance another hoax, refused to go to his aid. The body was recovered later.

Chief McRae Leaves Office.

WINNIPEG, Aug. 1.—Chief John McRae, for thirty years head of the Winnipeg police force, retired from service yesterday. His successor has not yet been appointed. A gold mounted cabinet of silver was presented to him on behalf of the force on Saturday. Deputy Chief Newton is rumored as the new chief, but the appointment remains to be made by the commission.

Prospects of Rescue for Young Man Imprisoned in Joplin Mine Unless Water Rises Too Fast

JOPLIN, Mo., Aug. 1.—Entombed 78 feet below the surface of the earth, facing a possible death from the rapidly rising water in the mine drift, Joseph Clary, the young miner caught by a cave-in at the White Oak mine here Sunday, tonight feasted on fried chicken and joked with friends, who are waiting at the surface for his rescue. The fourth drill hole put down in an attempt to reach his prison, penetrated the roof of limestone late this afternoon.

"Hello," his brother-in-law, Maurice Grafton, called down the hole when the drill bits had been removed.

"Hello boys, I'm hungry," came the clear but faint reply.

Then Thomas Clary, father of the entombed miner, hurried to his home where the young man's mother was prostrated from grief, and told her that the young man was still alive. The news, the doctors say, saved her life.

From his home, the father, one of the oldest prospectors in this district, hurried back to the mine, carrying milk and stimulants, which were lowered by a piece of rope. After drinking these, young Clary seemed much stronger and remained near the drill hole, talking with those at the top.

"I haven't worried any, though it has been a long while," he said. "For I knew that you were after me. The water has been rising fast here and it is about waist deep in some places now. I don't believe it will get much higher, for this is dry ground."

The ground where the mine is located is known as "dry ground," and it has never been necessary to use a pump to keep the water out of the drifts while work was going on. This fact lends encouragement to those who are working to sink a rescue shaft to the drift.

If, however, the shaft is not down to the drift within two or three days, it may be too late to bring the young man out alive.

After the entombed man had eaten his supper tonight an electric flashlight was let down to him and also a small rope which he tied to his waist so that if he stepped into a deep hole while exploring his prison, he could be saved. The work of sinking the rescue shaft is progressing rapidly and is now down about fifty feet with every indication that it will have reached the entombed man by tomorrow noon.

Through a telephone which was lowered to Clary, the entombed man was able to tell his experiences.

"I knew my companions would rescue me," he said. "I worked as much as I could trying to dig out and when I realized my utter helplessness, I just waited.

"I could hear them sinking the other holes and could tell when they missed the drift. Finally I felt a rush of fresh air and knew the drill had cut into the drift, but in the darkness I could not find where. I began to become discouraged, and I was ravenously hungry. I tried to keep busy, and finally another hole came through and I found it."

TROUBLE AT JUAREZ

Insurrecto Customs Employees Refuse to Allow Old Federal Officials to Work

JUAREZ, Mex., Aug. 1.—The situation is quiet in this city tonight, with the rebellious element of insurrecto customs employes masters of the situation, so far as their position in the government service is concerned. The significant development from the exciting experience of the day is that no former federal employes are going to be permitted to hold official positions under the present government, and that such appointments will be resisted by an appeal to arms if necessary.

The mutinous employes of the customs house, numbering 75, who this morning defied the federal government by preventing the former federal employes from taking up their work, arrested the federal postmaster and stamp collector, and compelled them to leave the city, and inspired the resignation of the collector, are tonight installed in their respective positions with the approval and backing of the Juarez people.

The authorities at Mexico City have been communicated with and advised to let matters remain as they are. No replies have been received.

ROME, Aug. 1.—The condition of Pope Pius, although not quite normal, is not alarming in the slightest degree. The weakness following the last indisposition of His Holiness has been due chiefly to the exceptional heat.

Four Miners Killed

LUMBER MERGER

Provincial Companies Organize New Concern With Large Capital Bonds Sold in London

VANCOUVER, Aug. 1.—The London, England, branch of the Royal Bank of Canada recently offered for subscription an issue at £93 per cent. of £350,000 6 per cent. first mortgage bonds of the Canadian Pacific Lumber Company, Ltd., which embraces a proposed amalgamation of five distinct British Columbia sawmill corporations, together with their respective timber holdings. The authorized capital is $2,000,000. It is understood that the flotation proved very successful.

According to the prospectus issued in London the companies forming the merger are as follows: Canadian Pacific Lumber Company, Ltd., Port Moody; Anglo-American Lumber Co., Ltd., Vancouver; Gibbons Lumber Company, Arrow Lake; Barkley Sound Cedar Company, Ltd., Alberni Canal, Vancouver Island; and the Rivers Inlet Timber Syndicate, Owekano Lake. They own four sawmills with an estimated sawing capacity of 270,000 feet daily. The total timber holdings of the combination is given at 2,337,469,000 feet. The value of all their freehold and leasehold lands, and plant and equipment is placed at $638,000 and $672,000 respectively. For the first four months of this year the profits of the Canadian Pacific Lumber company at Port Moody, and the Anglo-American Lumber company are given as $37,000 and $54,000 respectively.

The prospectus points out that up to the present time the timber has been left practically untouched, and the profits have been almost wholly earned by manufacturing lumber from logs purchased in the open markets.

It is intended to continue this policy for the present, as it is firmly believed that the timber will increase materially in value from year to year, as has been the experience in other parts of Canada and the United States.

The directors of the new corporation are as follows: M. B. Carlin, Victoria; W. W. Fraser, Winnipeg; R. W. Gibson and J. D. McArthur, Winnipeg; and Thomas Meredith, New Westminster.

Haytien Rebels Successful

PORT AU PRINCE, Aug. 1.—The capital is in a panic. The army of revolutionists remain outside, but the firing of their cannon is plainly heard here. President Simon today issued a public proclamation declaring that revolutionists would have to cross his dead body to wrest the sword of authority from the hand in which the nation had placed it.

"Divided Skirt Government"

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Speaking at a meeting of the Actresses' Franchise League in London the other day Mrs. Israel Zangwill remarked that one of the main anti-Suffragette arguments was the numerical preponderance of women which they said would mean petticoat government. At that awful picture words failed her. She could not see why it should be worse to be under a petticoat government than it was now for women to be under a trousers government. What they needed, she said, was a divided skirt government.

Not a Rembrandt

LONDON, Aug. 1.—Professor Von Seidlitz, of Dresden, a well-known authority on old masters, is said to have expressed the opinion that "The Mill," the famous picture formerly in possession of Lord Lansdowne, and for which an American millionaire paid $500,000, is not by Rembrandt at all, but by Aert de Gelder, one of the master's cleverest pupils. The professor says the warm, transparent coloring, the technical treatment, and the numerous figures, agree with Aert de Gelder.

Mysterious Death.

LONDON, Aug. 1.—The mysterious death of a little girl at Marlborough, who was found to be in flames after passing a motor-car, gave rise to an official investigation. It has been suggested that the child's flannelette clothing was set on fire by a spark from the exhause pipe of the motor, and the tragic scene was re-enacted a few days later, experts from the local government board being present to assist the jury. No solution of the mystery was, however, arrived at, and the jury returned an open verdict. The victim was Hilda Rose Dunford, aged 6, daughter of a butcher. She ran across the front of a motor, which was coming from a garage in the High-street, and immediately afterwards was seen to be in flames. A lady resident, Miss Carter, wrapped her own dress round the girl and put out the flames, severely burning her own hands in doing so. The child was taken to the hospital, and died shortly afterwards. When the scene was reconstructed in the High-street a piece of flanellette soaked in petrol was tied to the exhaust pipe of the motor to represent the child, but no spark was emitted, and experts gave it as their opinion that it was impossible for the pipe to emit a spark while the car was running.

SCHOOL TEACHERS AS MILITARY INSTRUCTORS

Splendid Results Expected—Examinations for Cadet Instructorships Begin Today at Work Point Barracks

One has only to visit the teachers' camp outside Work Point Barracks to see some of the benefits the school teachers have obtained from their month's course of training for the cadet instructors' course. Bronzed and smiling faces, brawny limbs, and a generally soldierly and alert appearance tell their own story. Such results were confirmed by conversation with the 21 volunteers taking part, who have come from public schools in all parts of the province and have derived as much enjoyment as they have knowledge from their first experience of military life. How thorough has been their course of training, thanks to the able and unsparing efforts of their instructors, Quartermaster-Sergeant Paterson and Drill-Sergeant Youngman has already been told in a recent issue of the Colonist Sunday Magazine. They have been encamped since July 4th, and every day since then have gone through a regular and systematic course of military training to prepare them for their practical and theoretical examinations for the cadet instructor's diploma. The examinations begin today and will conclude on Thursday. The camp will break up the following day. Some idea of the scope of study and practical work done by the teachers each day from "early morn to dewy eve" while in camp may be gathered from the following syllabus of the examinations for the cadet instructor's certificate:

Part I.—Musketry—A general knowledge to be shown of: (a) Construction of the Ross rifle; (b) care of arms; (c) rules for aiming; (d) the triangular system of aiming; (e) sub-target practice, with erection, adjustment, and correction of targets; (f) range discipline, how to conduct a "sheet" and knowledge of range duties; (g) subaltern's standard qualification in shooting.

Part II. Drill—(1) squad drill; (2) skirmishing; (3) rifle exercises; (4) firing exercises; (5) company drill; (6) handling a company in a battalion; (7) physical drill, as taught in public schools.

Part III.—General Work.

This includes examination in 1) map-drawing and "conventional signs;" (2) reports and orders (3) scouting; (4) company attack and defence; (5) advance, flank, and rear guards action; (6) outposts; (7) hasty entrenchments; (8) military law as required for subaltern officers; (9) interior economy; (10) officers' duties; (11) organization of Canadian militia; (12) signalling; (13) Maxim gun work; (14) military tactics and history.

Four Weeks' Training.

With but two exceptions—Sergeant-Major Bundy and Sergeant Willby—none of the teachers in camp have had any previous experience of military work or exercises. Yet they are now being tested for a cadet instructor's certificate after four weeks training! That they should be even hopeful of passing such an exhaustive examination is the best tribute to the industry and energy with which they have pursued their military studies and work in camp. From seven in the morning till seven at night they have scarcely had time to breathe between study and skirmishing, musketry and meals. Everyone, however, is so delighted with the routine and sanguine of its results that to quote their individual tributes to the scheme, and praise for its promoters would be to reiterate a whole-hearted paean of commendation and thanks. "You will find no 'grouchers' in this camp" the Colonist representative was told soon after arrival, and the assurance proved unnecessary. Everyone was most enthusiastic, and all anticipate the most beneficial results as soon as they have the opportunity of forming cadet corps in their schools.

Sergeant-Instructor Bundy, of the 6th Regiment, formerly of the R. M. A., who has done splendid work as drill instructor to over 10,000 children in the schools at Vancouver, is among those taking the cadet instructor's course, and was one of the most enthusiastic in his praise of the idea. He said that the experience gained by the teachers would be invaluable, and he had himself derived considerable physical benefit. "It was quite like old times," said the old artilleryman, who came to Victoria first with his old regiment in 1894, resigning after nine years' service to undertake the important work of superintending physical instruction in the Vancouver schools. Some little difficulty has been felt through the late arrival of the manuals of instruction, which delay has handicapped the men in their studies and necessitated them relying entirely on their memories of complicated exercises, perhaps only once undergone. Even now, there are less than a dozen copies of the chief book of instruction, that on 'Infantry Training,' between the score of candidates for examination in the cadet instructor's course. However, this deficiency was made light of by the teachers in camp. Though some were a little doubtful of their ability to pass an examination in a stiff six weeks' course crammed into a month, all were hopeful of success, and sanguine of the best and most far-reaching results from this unique experiment in the educational work of this province. Next year there seems no question that those going into camp will exceed a hundred in number, and that every teacher in the schools of British Columbia will soon avail himself of a course of practical training in military camp life seems likely, for Mr. Clark, of Grand Forks, said, "We are all going to boost for all we are worth on our return home." And the teachers themselves will be the best advertisement for the benefits of their camp.

CONGRESS DETERMINED

President May Have to Exercise His Veto Power to Prevent Tariff Revision

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—The Democratic tariff programme was moved up closer to President Taft today when the senate, by another remarkable coalition of Democrats and Republican insurgents, passed a farmers' free list bill, after voting down the original house measure so closely that one more Democratic senator would have changed the result and left the entire revision issue squarely before the president tonight.

"The unholy alliance," as the combination of the Republican wing and the Democratic party has been called, swept aside a host of amendments, voted down by a tie vote the original house measure, and then carried by a surprising concentration of strength, a measure differing from the house bill only in comparatively unimportant particulars.

Now the bill goes back to the house, and Democratic Leader Underwood, of that body tonight confidently asserted that it would be fully agreed to in conference between the two houses and sent to President Taft.

The house free list bill was beaten by a tie vote of 39 to 39, was then reconsidered, changed by a compromise amendment offered by Senator Kern, of Indiana, and passed as amended, by a vote of 48 to 30.

Originally the bill provided that meat products, flour and cereal products, from all countries, should be admitted free into the United States. The Kern amendment provides that this free admission shall apply only to meats, flour and cereal products "coming from any foreign country with which the United States has a reciprocal agreement and which shall admit from the United States free of duty, cotton, corn, wheat, oats, horses, cattle and hogs."

It is admitted that this provision applies only to Canada, after the new reciprocity agreement shall have become effective.

Senator Bailey, Senator Clapp and other insurgents who voted for the free free list bill after the Kern compromise amendment had been adopted, declared tonight that the amendment accomplishes what they tried to effect by amendments to the reciprocity bill. It admits the manufactured articles made from farm products free from Canada, an end which the insurgents repeatedly tried to gain in the reciprocity fight.

Several other amendments were added after they had been first defeated, when offered as amendments to the original bill.

One by Mr. Gronna, of North Dacota, insurgent Republican, extends the free admission of shoes to cover all kinds of footwear.

Another by the same author admits free Roman, Portland and other hydraulic cements. An amendment by Mr. Shively, of Indiana, Democrat, adds binders to the list of agricultural machinery to be admitted free.

If President Taft vetoes this bill and the wool tariff bill, both of which it is asserted will be sent to him, the Democratic managers of the house will make no further effort at tariff revision this session, but will continue the preparation of tariff bills for the session next December. If he signs either measure, the whole tariff programme of the Democrats will be opened up and congress will remain in session. Democratic Leader Underwood made this announcement today.

MUSICAL CLUBS UNITE IN VICTORIA

Prospects for Coming Season Made Bright by Important Concert Arrangements of the Victoria Ladies' Club

The announcement of the amalgamation of the Victoria Musical Club with the active and enterprising Ladies' Musical Club will be of interest to all music lovers in the city. The united societies will in future be known as the Victoria Ladies' Musical Club. This important amalgamation was finally decided on at the last meeting of the general committee of the respective societies, and the programme of engagements and concerts for the coming season is to be discussed at a committee meeting of the new Victoria Ladies' Musical Club in the committee room of the Alexandra Club at 11 a.m. tomorrow.

The Victoria Ladies' Musical club will undertake to give concerts every three weeks on Saturday afternoons throughout the season. The first of these concerts, to be held through the courtesy of the club's committee, in the spacious ballroom of the new Alexandra club, will be given on Oct. 7th. This, however, will be a members' complimentary invitation concert, for which applications for seats should be made to the honorary secretary, Miss Smith, or to the assistant secretary, Miss Spencer.

By the decision of the committee at its last meeting, all members will in future be required to present their membership cards at each concert. These should be obtained as soon as possible, and in any case not later than September 30th. Applications for membership should be sent to the honorary secretary of the V. L. M. C. —Miss Smith, at the Alexandra club.

In addition to the members' concerts to be given every three weeks, Victoria Ladies' Musical Society is arranging to give an interesting series of five concerts in the Victoria theatre, at which the most famous virtuosi on the continent will appear. Details of these important engagements are to be discussed at tomorrow's meeting of the committee; and these—with the admirable club concerts for which the Victoria Ladies' Musical club have won an enviable reputation throughout Canada and the Pacific Coast—will, it is expected, bring Victoria to a leading position among the musical centres of the Dominion.

TWO VICTORIANS LOSE IN DOUBLES

Announcement that Schwengers and McRae, as Partners, Had Won was Erroneous

It was erroneously stated by telegraph that Messrs. Schwengers and McRae, of Victoria, had won the men's doubles in the recent tennis tournament at Ottawa. News received yesterday declares Messrs. Sewell and Allen, of Toronto, the winners.

The dispatch says:

"Schwengers was successful in winning the Canadian championship at the tournament here last week, but with McRae as partner he met defeat in the men's doubles championship, losing in three sets to Messrs. Sewell and Allen of Toronto, 6-4, 6-4, 6-4. Schwengers was completely exhausted after his strenuous play in the singles and most of the defensive play devolved upon McRae.

"Schwengers and Miss Sutton went into the mixed doubles and it proved a triumph for the Westerners, who won out over Miss Moyes and Mr. Baird by 6-4, 6-4.

"Miss Florence Sutton of California defeated Miss Moyes of Toronto by 6-2, 6-2 for the Canadian ladies' championship, and Miss Moyes and Miss Sutton won out from Mrs. Foiger and Miss Mothersill in the doubles. Woodland of Ottawa defeated Gaunt of Montreal in the handicaps.

"Schwenger and McRae with Miss Sutton and Miss Moyes will compete at Newport next month. Schwengers is after the United States title. British Columbia has applied for next year's championship meet."

An excellent brass band has been organized at Central Park.

OTHER ISSUES

The appeal of the advocates of reciprocity is to the pocket. They claim that if the agreement comes into effect, certain articles of food will be cheaper, because we will be able to import them from the United States without paying duty. The logical reply to this is that our local producers will get less for what they raise than they now do and that a larger proportion of our money will be sent abroad to foreign producers to whom we can sell nothing in return. Things are bad enough now without a certain measure of protection to our home producers; they will be very much worse if the protection is taken off.

But the people ought not to be allowed to forget the other issues involved in the perpetuating of control of the present regime. Take the question of the naval defence of the Pacific Coast of Canada. It is understood that some of the vessels of the Canadian Navy, when they are built, will be stationed here; but this will be a singularly small factor in the defence of this coast in the event of war. It is said by the local Liberal paper that the Admiralty has expressed its approval of what is going to be done, but there was nothing else left for the Admiralty to do. The Admiralty suggested that the Dominion should establish the nucleus of a fleet unit here, but the Dominion government would not act upon the suggestion. Instead it prepared the existing programme, and if the Admiralty has made no objection to it, we may assume that it was influenced by the same sort of feeling as the man at the restaurant, of whom it is told that, after giving his order, the waiter brought him a very small portion. The man looked at it and said: "Yes; that's the kind I ordered, bring me some." The Canadian government has shown the Admiralty a small sample of what is wanted, and that is all.

We are justified in supposing that Messrs. Templeman and Smith, being the British Columbia members in sympathy with the government, spoke the mind of the government in the matter of the naval defence of the Pacific Coast, and they practically said nothing at all. We do those gentlemen no injustice when we say that they can point to no public utterances, either in or out of the House, wherein they have shown any appreciation whatever of the importance of this Coast in any scheme of Imperial or Canadian defence. We must conclude one of three things, namely either that they are ignorant of the importance of the coast in that respect, or that they did not see their way clear to urge it upon the attention of the Ministry, or that they did urge it and met with an unfavorable response, and thereupon, on the principle that nothing must be done to embarrass the party, they preserved an eloquent silence. We cannot see our way clear to accepting the first suggested explanation, because that would be to assume a degree of ignorance on the part of Messrs. Templeman and Smith which we can hardly believe they are unfortunate enough to be afflicted with. Even if they had themselves never paid any attention to the subject, a sufficient number of memorials have gone forward from the Board of Trade and other public bodies to enlighten them. We cannot suppose that they were silent through ignorance. Which of the other explanations shall we accept? Shall we say that knowing the importance of the Coast they forebore to press its importance upon the attention of the government, or that they did press it only to have their appeals disregarded? On these points we cannot pretend to speak with authority.

Previous to dissolution we did not think the construction of ships for the navy on the Pacific Coast was a matter that ought to be discussed in any spirit of partizanship; but now that an election is to be held, this is one of the matters that may very profitably and properly be considered. The people of British Columbia have a right to know, before they are asked to choose supporters of the present Ministry to represent them in the House of Commons, if there is the least likelihood that their reasonable wishes in this respect are likely to be acceded to. We do not propose that this issue shall be lost sight of in the contemplation of the boon of cheaper potatoes. We may be told by the supporters of the Ministry that we should confine the discussion to the issue upon which the House has been dissolved; but when a government appeals to the people, it matters not what the circumstances attending the appeal may be, its whole record properly comes under review, and one part of that record, concerning which the defenders of the government will find difficulty in satisfying the people of British Columbia, is the manner in which the Pacific Coast has been treated in the matter of naval defence and naval construction.

SOMETHING NEW IN ROADS.

We find in the Toronto Globe the following editorial:

An Ontario man, for some time resident in the West, has made a discovery in the domain of roadmaking that is worthy the careful consideration of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, to which it has been submitted. Like many other important inventions, it is a by-product of another. The inventor was interested in the pottery trade, and produced and patented a compound intended to temper clay for the manufacture of brick, tile and other products. Its effect is to overcome the alkali which to a greater or less extent is present in all clays. As alkali is responsible for cracking in drying and checking and melting in firing, a saving of waste is made, and firing may be proceeded with more rapidly when the danger of melting is eliminated.

When he got this length the potter began to experiment on the effect of the treatment of clay roads. There are large areas in this country, particularly in the West, where it is almost impossible to obtain even gravel for roadmaking, but where clay can be found quite near the surface almost everywhere. It is possible that the treatment of macadam roads with oil suggested the idea of trying the effect of the potter's compound on clay. The inventor after experimenting asserts that a relatively inexpensive treatment of a clay road would transform such a road into a smooth, roadless and dustless one that would not absorb moisture and would therefore always be dry and mud. The effect of the compound is to cause the pores and one treatment would last for years, and these claims can be substantiated the discovery is of national importance.

We may infer from the prominence given by the Globe to this matter that the invention is well worth serious investigation by all public departments, whether provincial or municipal, that have to do with road-making. The road problem is growing more and more serious every year. The volume of vehicular traffic is steadily expanding and we need not only more, but better roads than ever before. It becomes, therefore, of prime importance to hit upon a way of surfacing roads that will be reasonably permanent without being unreasonably expensive.

THE BRITISH SITUATION.

A solution of the constitutional crisis in the United Kingdom seems very probable without extreme measures of any kind being resorted to. The course of events is demonstrating the value of the monarchical system. Let it be assumed, if it is conceivable, that Mr. Asquith had notified Mr. Balfour that it was his personal intention to create a number of peers in order to pass the Parliament Bill. Under such circumstances it is incredible that such an act would have been submitted to by the present peerage without a resort to measures of a very serious nature. It seems hardly possible that Mr. Asquith could have accomplished his purpose without a resort to force. But it is the King who will create the peers, if any are created, and the King is above party politics. He represents the state as a whole. It is all very illogical, no doubt, but when once you begin to apply the rules of logic to the British Constitution, you will play sad havoc with it. The Constitution and the Monarchy are what they are, and being what they are they suffice to carry the nation over any crisis that has yet arisen.

Of itself the Parliament Bill does not mean very much. For the ordinary purposes of legislation it does not matter in one case in twenty what the powers of the Lords are, and in the twentieth case the people usually have their way, although an election may have to be held before they get it. But the abolition of the veto is of enormous importance because of its probable results in respect to a few measures. The present House of Commons has more than six years to live. It is not likely to be continued for its full term, but it is practically certain, unless unexpected conditions arise, to continue for six more years. Many things may be done in six years, and the ministry is very likely to ask the House to do some of them. It is likely to ask for the passage of a Home Rule Bill, at a date sufficiently early to bring it into force during the lifetime of the present House. With Home Rule out of the way, the whole complexion of British politics will be changed. It seems evident that the devolution of authority by Parliament cannot stop at the assigning of certain powers to an Irish Parliament. Home Rule all round seems to be the inevitable consequence of Home Rule for Ireland. Here is an issue upon which party lines may be to a considerable extent re-drawn. The one-man-one-vote principle is very likely to be adopted by the House of Commons at a sufficiently early day to prevent its being held over by the Lords until after a new election. It is not improbable that some measure of woman suffrage may also be passed. The payment of members is a foregone conclusion. Therefore when a new election is held, it will be one in which Home Rule for Ireland will not be a factor but local self-government may be; it will be before an electorate in which there will be no plural voting; it may be that a new element will be introduced into the constituencies by the partial enfranchisement of women. The payment of salaries to members may be expected to have some effect upon the character of the candidates who will offer for election. All these things, and others that do not now suggest themselves are involved in the passage of the Parliament Bill. When that measure has become law a revolution will have been accomplished, and it is interesting and exceedingly important to know that out of the confusion the Crown will emerge with added dignity and a stronger hold than ever upon the confidence of the people.

The Post-Intelligencer says there have been ten unsolved murders in that city during the past year. This is an awful record.

When Macauley's New Zealander comes to stand on London Bridge will he be likely to get King George and Lloyd George mixed up?

"Try it for a year," said Mr. Fielding anent reciprocity. This suggests a new lesson in first aid: "Try dying for a little while and if you do not like it, we will save you."

Lord Halsbury in the course of a rather heated speech said: "When I was a young man, the King's name was seldom mentioned." This leads the Ottawa Citizen to say that when the noble lord was a young man, there wasn't any king.

The late strike among the seamen in the United Kingdom demonstrated how exceedingly close that country is to the starvation line in the matter of food products. It is stated by those who claim to know that there is not above two weeks' supply of food ahead at any time.

All former New Brunswickers will be gratified to learn that the restoration of Christ Church Cathedral, at Fredericton, recently almost destroyed by fire occasioned by lightning, is to be proceeded with at once. The insurance is upwards of $37,000 with $13,000 upon the organ. The cost of restoration can hardly fall short of $100,000.

As a sample of "English as she is wrote," the following line may be useful. A contemporary says: "Morgan wanted to testify in the steel cases." Now if Mr. Morgan wanted to testify in those cases why did he not testify? Why was it necessary to issue a subpoena for him?" Language is ambiguous enough if properly employed without its being made needlessly so.

The action of the Socialist obstructors of traffic in refusing to pay the very moderate fines imposed upon them justifies the claim that they meant to set the law at defiance. They now seek to pose as martyrs. Many people, who were in sympathy with their contention that they ought to be allowed to speak in the public streets, will regard their latest move as showing their real intentions.

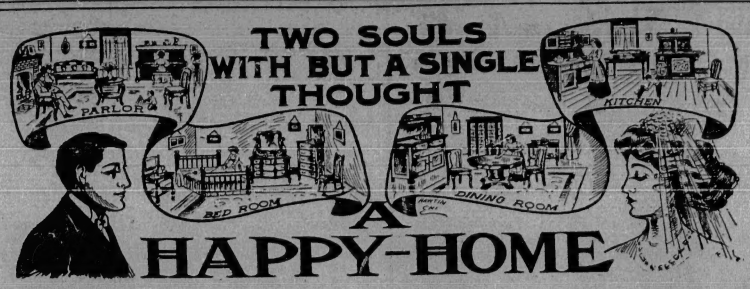

Man says he was coming down Douglas street in his motor; street-sprinkler was going up; street-sprinkler deluged car; man wants to know if this is right. All depends. Perhaps sprinkler man thought car needed washing; perhaps man in motor was going so fast that sprinkler man did not see him soon enough to turn water off. On general principles think man in car has a grievance; think men on sprinklers ought to see that they do not waste presious water on people and things.

Gustave Meurling was a Frenchman, whose home was in France. Not long ago he came out to Montreal, where he met Senator Forget, who gave him some sound advice about investments, and he acted on it. When he died recently, he left his estate in trust for the poor of Montreal. He said he would have left it to the poor of France, but he detested the attitude of the French at home towards the Church, while that of the people of Montreal had his qualified admiration. His estate is worth upwards of a million dollars.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier told the House of Commons that he was anxious to have his course at the Imperial Conference discussed in the House and the country. He did not give the House much opportunity to discuss it; but this reference to what he said is made for the purpose of showing how far astray the local newspaper, that is supposed to voice the opinions of the supporters of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, misunderstands parliamentary practice. When the Colonist suggested that this opportunity of discussion should be given, we were told by our evening contemporary that we were asking something dreadful.

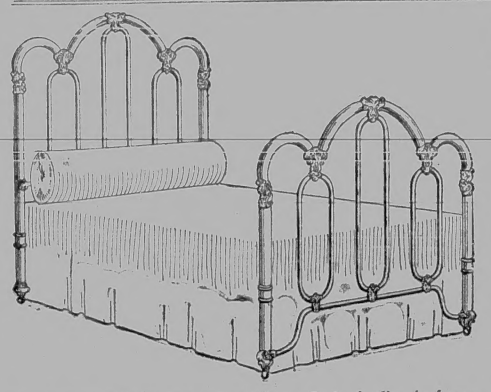

The more or less Honorable Jack Johnson, erstwhile annihilator of the white man's hope, has declared in favor of England. He says it is the only country fit to live in, and he is prepared to fight for the Union Jack from the drop of the hat. He does not specify whether or not the fight is to be under Queensberry rules, nor how much of the gate receipts he will ask; but all and sundry enemies of John Bull will please take notice that the conquering hero is ready to do his share towards the defence of the right little, tight little island. Whether Mr. Asquith, when he gets the peers off his hands, will negotiate an offensive and defensive alliance with Mr. Johnson is not disclosed.

What does the evening paper mean when it says that the Canadian Navy will pass automatically under the control of the British Admiralty in case of war? The statement made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the House of Commons was that it had been agreed that when the governments of the overseas Dominions should place their navies at the disposal of the Home government, they should be under the command of the Admiralty. We can hardly suppose that our contemporary has stated the contrary knowing it not to be true, although how it can fail to be aware that one of the principal features of the naval policy, determined upon by the Laurier ministry, was and is the absolute control by Canada of its own navy, passes our comprehension. If our contemporary had read a London telegram published in the third column of its third page yesterday, it would not have made this error.

SEEKS FURTHER STORAGE POWERS

B. C. Electric Railway Company Makes Application to Government Relative to Jordan River Plant

At a short meeting of the provincial executive held yesterday morning, an application of the British Columbia Electric Railway Co. for further storage powers in the Jordan river valley received cabinet consideration. No protest was entered with respect to the plans submitted, but it was deemed the part of wisdom to proceed with all due caution, and Mr. C. Gray Donald of the engineering branch of the provincial water board will be requested to visit the locality and report at an early date as to all details of the project and its effect, as viewed from the public interest standpoint.

The matter of the dispute which has arisen between the West Kootenay power interests and the Granby smelter proprietors with respect to the new scale of charges on power to be paid by the latter corporation to the former, has been set for hearing before the executive on Monday next, the 7th inst. This will be in all probability the first meeting of the cabinet to be held after the return of the prime minister, and it is expected that a variety of extra important business will be presented on that occasion for consideration and disposal.

AIM AND VALUE OF SPIRITUALISM

Rev. Dr. B. F. Austin Discusses the Use of Prayer and the Power of Mental Suggestion

The Rev. B. F. Austin, A. M., D. D., pastor of the Plymouth Spiritual church, Rochester, N. Y., who is giving a course of spirituelistic addresses here this week, in the Broad street hall, is a man of many parts. Besides his present pastorship of the Spiritualists church in Rochester, New York, Mr. Austin was formerly a pastor in the Methodist Episcopal church, and is now interested in the firm of Spiritualist publishers in Rochester, to which he gave his name, and from whose offices he edits the monthly clarion of the movement called "Reason." Besides confessing to the authorship of numerous Spiritualist pamphlets, Dr. Austin, who was given the degree of Doctor of Divinity by Victoria college, which is now affiliated to Toronto university, recently published under a "nom-de-plume," a psychial novel called "The Mystery of Ashton Hall," and is now starting, in connection with his church, a school of general culture, to be called "The Rochester Institute of Progress." Born 61 years ago, Dr. Austin was elected in 1881 principal of Alma college, St. Thomas, Ontario, which post he held for sixteen years, after which he moved to Toronto, and in conjunction with ministerial work, began to publish books and magazines on psychical subjects. In January, 1898, he stood his trial in Toronto for heresy, which culminated in his enforced retirement from the Methodist church. Since then he has come to be one of the most popular lecturers of the widespread National Spiritualist association of the U. S. A., and one of the leading champions in the press of a form of religion that is somewhat misunderstood.

"In developing one's mental forces to attain to a super-normal consciousness, "the first thing to recognize," said the American Spiritualist in an interview with the Colonist, "is that whatever powers have been manifested by prophets, aposties, and mystics in all ages are latent in every man and woman. These apparently phenomenal powers—or powers to create phenomena—are only outcroppings of the wonderful spiritual nature of man. The mission of spiritualism is to show how everyone can develop his or her own powers of mediumship; how, in other words, to establish at will personal communion with the spirit world, that men have come to call rightly the Kingdom of God."

Power of Suggestion.

"The power of mental suggestion," continued Dr. Austin, is one of the greatest forces in our work of psychic development. The eminent scientist, Dr. Quackenboss, of Columbia University, has been taking, for instance, uneducated boys or girls, and by hypnosis or mental suggestion has in a few months developed in them an amazing faculty for the highest expression of music, oratory and art."

"In my 'How' series of lectures in Victoria this week, I am emphasizing two fundamentals for spiritualistic inquiry. The first is that of keeping some place consecrated as much as possible to the work of communing with our spiritual forces. The other is the method of unfolding and developing one's psychic powers. It is of course essential that the student should seek to abstract his mind from material thought and divorce his senses from material objects, in order to attain the proper concentration of mind and affections upon spiritual objects."

Asked to explain the spiritualistic philosophy of prayer, on which it appears Dr. Austin was "heckled" at his first lecture by one of the ministers in the city, the ex-Methodist pastor said that "according to the Spiritualists, prayer is not offered for Divine intervention or interruption of Nature's order, but for the elevation of one's normal consciousness to a higher order of spiritual realization and knowledge. Prayer is devised for the uplifting of the soul, that it may, so to speak, stretch up to reach that higher intelligence that is within the grasp of all who would strive to attain it. And this answer to prayer, sought by Spiritualists is telepathic communication with angel guides and helpers."

Value of Spiritualism

"The value of spiritualism," said Dr. Austin in the course of further conversation, "is that it gives a demonstration of immortality. Spiritualism is, indeed, the one proof of immortality. The churches have only a story, two thousand years old with which to invite not experiment and proof—but merely credulity and belief. How the churches have failed in this appeal to scientific thinkers is shown in such eminent examples as Sir William Crookes, Professor Russell Wallace, Professor Lombroso and Sir Oliver Lodge—all of whom were "unbelievers" or agnostics until they tested spiritualist teachings."

"Spiritualism also illustrates the powers and potentialities of the human soul as no other religion I know of can bring out so fully. Thus, it has built up in its members a spirit of indefatigable cheerfulness and of optimism begot of self-knowledge that no doubts or disasters can destroy. Spiritualism is, I maintain, the best—if not the only—key with which to interpret the Christian Bible and the tenets of all other religions in the light of a uniformity in all beliefs.

"Lastly, assuming its teachings to be true, the power of communicating with those on the other side of the Veil must be acknowledged as a source of inestimable inspiration and strength."

Next week Dr. Austin is giving a similar series of lectures in Seattle, prior to returning to New York. While in Victoria he is a guest at the Balmoral hotel and is holding classes for enquirers in the afternoons at the K. of P. hall.

Thieves at Work—Thieves broke into the Fort street establishment of the Colbert Plumbing & Heating Co. Ltd. last Thursday and got away loaded with spoils. They found an entrance through one of the rear windows, to which there is easy access by way of the roofs of low adjoining buildings. The cash register was pried open and ten dollars in change, that was left over for the beginning of the next day's business, was filched. The thieves not finding any other loose cash about turned their attention to the stock, lifting about $75 worth of razors, penknives and other articles of a like character.

Lectures on Spiritualism—At the Broad street hall last evening the Rev. Dr. B. F. Austin delivered another of his series of lectures, his subject being Spiritualism, illustrated by stereopticon views. He showed pictures of some of those who are said to be the world's greatest mediums, spiritualistic temples, the phenomena of Madame Pallabino and Charles Bailey, and considerably interested his audience by his general handling of his theme. This afternoon at 3 o'clock he will hold a class in the K. of P. hall, when he will take for his lesson, "How to Develop Our Magnetic Forces." This evening at the Broad street hall he will again lecture, his subject being, "The Operator at the Other End of the Wire."

During the past month the duty collected amounted to $142,972.28; Chinese revenue $268,041, the head tax of $500 having been collected from 134 new arrivals during the month as compared with 181 during the month previous, and other revenues added $21.15, making a grand total for the month of July of $411,034.43, as compared with a total of $227,316.88 for the same month last year and $523,858.34 for the month of June. During the same month last year the duty collected totalled $121,733.13, Chinese revenue $105,577 and other revenue $6.75, a total of $227,316.88.

Married Woman's Plight—A pitiable case in which a young married woman figured was brought up in the police court yesterday morning, when Nettie Earl, of this city, was accused of obtaining goods, to the value of $13.50, by fraud, the property of Mrs. J. E. Elliott. She pleaded guilty conditionally, and was remanded until this morning. The evidence of the complainant, Mrs. Elliott, was to the effect that on the 29th day of July, the accused came to her store and purchased a dress and other articles. She asked for credit, which was given, saying that she would return with the money that night. She did return wearing the dress, which had been purchased and said that a Mrs. Heath had liked the dress so well that she would like two more just like it, and that Mrs. Heath would be in that afternoon to pay for them. As the time rolled on and no Mrs. Heath appeared, the complainant grew suspicious, and immediately called Mrs. Heath on the phone and inquired about the dresses. The reply was that Mrs. Heath knew nothing whatever about the accused or the dresses and straightway the police were notified. The outcome of the case will be heard in the police court this morning.

Tale of a Trousers.—Angelus Pappes, a Greek, has no doubt learned the lesson, that it is neither wise nor by any means safe to be depending upon just one pair of trousers for daily wear. His disregard of this fact developed into a police court case in which the young Greek was charged with theft, and thereby hangs a tale. Pappes was rooming with a gentleman by the name of Wills on Johnson street, at the time of this episode, and for some reason or other had left his clothes other than the suit he wore in a friend's trunk, who roomed in some entirely different part of the city. Now it happened that this friend went to Seattle to enjoy the Potlatch celebrations in that ciy, and before going he had remembered to lock this trunk, and take the key with him. While he was away from the city, Pappes had the misfortune to tear his trousers, which he was wearing, to the extent that they could not be worn until they were mended. His room mate, Wills, gets up at 6 o'clock each morning, while the accused does not go to work until later. On the morning in question the accused had not noticed the tear in his only pair of trousers until he was about to put them on. Realizing his embarrassing predicament, and forced to desperation he took the liberty to borrow a pair of trousers belonging to Wills which were hanging across a chair, intending to return them just as soon as his own were mended. He claims to have taken his own pair to the repairer, but could not get them again until the next morning, and in the meantime Mr. Wills on returning home missed his trousers. He at once became suspicious and notified the police, which resulted in the arrest of the accused, caught "with the goods on him." The complainant was not present to press the charge, and the magistrate after having listened to this interesting tale of the lost trousers, decided that it was no a case of heft, and after warning the accused to in future provide himself with extra apparel in case of emergency, dismissed the case. The trousers were returned to the rightful owner.

NEWS OF THE CITY

Will Hold Chambers—Mr. Justice Gregory, who has been detained in Vancouver will hold chambers tomorrow at 10 a.m.

Poultrymen to Meet—A meeting of the Victoria Poultry association will be held in Labor hall this evening at 8 o'clock. Important matters will be discussed.

Thanks for Chief Davis.—At the last meeting of the Fireman's Recreation Club, held at headquarters, a unanimous vote was passed thanking Chief Davis and others for the handsome billiard and pool table which has been recently installed at the headquarters, fire department.

Will Settle Here—Mr. Robert L. Shaw, a well known vocal instructor of Paterson, New Jersey, who accompanied Mr. W. Oliphant to this city from the east, has decided to remain and open a studio here. Mr. Shaw has been a close student of voice culture, both physiologically and psychologically for more than thirty years. There has been no singing event of any note in the city of Paterson for many years past that his pupils have not figured in, and many important positions in churches are held today by them. Mr. Shaw was conductor of the Philharmonic Society of his former home in New Jersey.

Vital Statistics.—The vital statistics for Victoria city during the month of July, as recorded by this branch of the Provincial Health Department, indicate an awakening on the part of those responsible to more fully obey the requirements of statute law in respect of registration. There were for the month a total of 95 births reported, fifty of the newly arrived citizens being boys and 45 girls; the deaths during the month totalled 53, the males largely predominating, as the returns show a total of 38 males and 15 females; and marriages the large total of 82. Notices of births totalled 89, 48 males and 41 females.

Medals Won by B. C.—The Provincial Department of Agriculture has just had executed in the Old Country and in a manner leaving nothing to be desired, a most interesting series of duplicates or replicas of all the medals won by individual exhibitors from this province in the Old Country during the past six years, and more particularly the trophies of victories at the successive annual exhibitions of the Royal Horticultural Society. These duplicate medals—the originals of course are cherished as the individual properties of the winners—form a highly interesting and significant collection of upwards of 150 in number. The intention of the Department is to have them systematically and appropriately grouped and effectively staged for the effective advertisement of the fruit resources of this province at future important exhibitions.

Pet of the Buildings Dead.—There is mourning among the staff of janitors at the Provincial Parliament Buildings, and Mr. Richard Ryan and his associate workers refuse to be comforted. For Tom, dear old Tom, is no more. Yesterday he was discovered cold in death, and later in the day was given an unofficial funeral, at which Mr. Dangerfield officiated. Tom for the past seven years has assumed the airs of an exclusive proprietor at the big buildings over the bay, ever since he was born within their stately precincts, as soft and frolicsome a little iron-grey kitten as ever chased its own tail or pleaded for tit-bits from the lunch baskets. No inquest was held on the remains of the late deceased, to whom Mr. Ryan stood in loco parentis. Poison is believed to have, with an inordinate and undiscriminative appetite, proved poor Tom's undoing.

Chicken Thief Sentenced—It was apparently with a deeply repentant spirit and sorrowful state of mind in which Quock Sing, an aged chinaman, left the court room yesterday morning, to enter upon a two months' sentence at hard labor, which sentence was imposed, by the magistrate, on the accused being found guilty of stealing two chickens, valued at $1.50, the property of an unknown person. The sentence was not imposed because of Sing's offence on Monday altogether, but because of his persistency in partaking in midnight prowls, for the purpose of attaching to himself one or more fowl which did not belong to him. Sing has become a habitual chicken thief, and he apparently felt his situation keenly yesterday, he wept bitterly and when the sentence was imposed, his sobs became more impressive. According to the evidence of Detectives Hanley and Hutchinson, Quock Sing was met by the officers, about four o'clock on Monday morning, and as they knew his past reputation they at once became suspicious. They asked him where he was going and in broken English he replied that he was going to his home. This did not satisfy the detectives, however, and they asked him to accompany them. This he refused to do, and when they took hold of him to force him along, he pulled a string in the front of his blouse, letting out two large chickens. One of the chickens was caught by the detectives, but the other succeeded in getting away. When asked by the court where these chickens came from, Sing had nothing to say. All he could do then was cry.

GROWTH OF METHODISM ON VANCOUVER ISLAND

Laymen's Missionary Movement Has Been Responsible for Increased Interest

That the General Methodist Conference held last August in the Metropolitan church in this city has had a very beneficial result on Methodism both in the city and province generally is the opinion of Rev. T. E. Holling, who yesterday told the Colonist something of the growth of Methodism on the island. Interest in missionary work has greatly increased of late. Last year the givings both for general and missionary purposes were far larger than in any preceding year, totalling the large sum of $25,000. The revival of interest in missions is attributed in a large measure to the Laymen's Missionary Movement, and also to the altered methods used for the support of missions. The duplex envelope system which Mr. Holling introduced into the Metropolitan church about two years ago has done a great deal, as those using the envelope contribute weekly both to local expenses and to missions.

Rev. Thos. Keyworth recently started a mission at Esquimalt, services being held in Heald's Hall. Mr. Keyworth recently received word of his appointment as Methodist chaplain to the naval forces here, his name having been recommended to the Admiralty by the English Wesleyan Conference. Rev. Mr. Holling has been busy organising a mission at Shawnigan, which will also take in Cowichan Bay and Mill Bay, formerly included in the Duncan mission. An official board has been appointed and everything points to a prosperous future. Rev. B. Black is in charge. Important changes are also being made to the Chinese Methodist mission at a cost of $10,000, of which sum the Chinese themselves have promised to raise $1000. Plans are being made for taking up institutional work, which will involve the providing of rooming quarters for Chinese young men, and also a gymnasium, while other Y. M. C. A. features will also be introduced. In connection with the Oriental work of the Methodist church, Rev. G. E. Hartwell, formerly of West China, has been appointed superintendent of Oriental work in the B. C. Conference, while Rev. Dr. Osterhout, formerly pastor of Central Church, Vancouver, is leaving shortly for Canton, China, where he will spend two years studying the language and habits of the country.

Indian missions at Nitinat, Clayoquot and Clo-oose are also reported to be doing good work, and a new schoolhouse and church are in the course of erection near the latter. An Indian Missionary Conferene, which will be attended by Indian missionaries from all over Northern B. C., will be held at Fort Simpson in the middle of this month.

Both the Sunday schools and Young People's Societies are in excellent condition, the James Bay Sunday school having done specially well of late. Both these societies support a missionary of their own in China, in the person of the Rev. R. E. S. Taylor.

It is expected that the Victoria West Methodist Church will have to be enlarged soon, and with this end in view the pastor, Rev. J. A. Wood, has recently acquired additional property alongside the present building.

One of the most important features of Methodist church life in Victoria has been the recent organization of a Victoria Extension society. Those who know anything of the Methodist church over on the mainland know what a great amount of good was done by the formation of a similar movement in Vancouver, and there is little doubt but that the same will be the case over here. Rev. Mr. Holling is president and Mr. W. J. Sargent secretary, and the aim of the society is to provide church accommodation in the districts now rapidly building up. With this in mind a sites committee was recently appointed to carry on investigations as to the localities in which sites should be secured for the erection of new churches. It is hoped to be able to secure sites at once in the neighborhood of the Fairfield estate, Foul Bay, Oak Bay, the Willows, Oaklands and the Burnside road.

SEEKING FOR ROUTE OVER HOPE MOUNTAINS

Engineer Cleveland, who last year was engaged by the Provincial Public Works department to investigate conditions in that district with a view to the selection of the best possible route for the Hope mountains section of the new inter-provincial highway, has resumed his exploration and study of the country, with the hope and expectation of completing his report and presenting it to the minister before the advent of autumn. Mr. Cleveland arrived in Princeton, which is to be the present base from which his field operations will be directed, on Saturday week, having gone in over the Hope trail in accordance with his instructions of the present season. His party has now reached the head of Silver creek and is engaged in surveying along the Muddy river. This route, following the Roche and Similkameen rivers to Princeton, is believed by many to be the best that can be obtained traversing the Hope mountain range, superior alike from the standpoints of mileage, gradients, minimum snowfall and potentially valuable country to be served. The mining camps en route have ore tonnage, machinery and supplies to provide for the haulage of, in addition to which the scenic, fishing and hunting attractions of the region are said to be peerless. Residents of the district are counting with a considerable measure of confidence upon this route being selected.

SEEKS LEGISLATION TO ENFRANCHISE WOMEN

Political Equality League to Circulate Petition for Presentation to Local Legislature.

The garden party which is to be held this evening at 7.30 under the auspices of the Political Equality League at the residences of Mrs. Dennis Harris and Mrs. W. K. Anderson, 603-611 Superior street, will mark the inauguration of the season's campaign, which promises to be an interesting and strenuous one. Its most important feature will be the circulation of a petition to the effect that legislation be introduced in the provincial house regarding the extension of the franchise to women. The principal speaker of the evening will be Mrs. Leonia Windsor Brown, while other speakers will include the Misses Kangley, two American ladies, who have studied the suffrage movement in England, and Mrs. G. A. Smith, who has been very prominent in women's suffrage work in Colorado. A concert programme will be rendered in the course of the evening contributed to by Mr. Griffiths, song; Messrs. Hughes and Petch, duettists; Mrs. Gregson, song, and Mr. Gregson, violin solo.

The Victoria branch of the league now has a membership roll of about a hundred and, although the members consider the city as a whole to be apathetic where "The Cause" is concerned, they think that Victoria is beginning to wake up to the importance of the issues involved.

The local branch was formed last December—in fact in this respect the Capital City may take precedence of Vancouver, which did not organize until a few weeks later. The offices of the league are at 606 Yates street and are in charge of Miss Bruce, organizing secretary. The provincial president, Mrs. Gordon Grant, is also president of the local branch, Miss Bromley-Jubb is honorary secretary and Miss Baer, treasurer. Mrs. Grant can claim long experience in connection with the franchise question, for she has been superintendent of the franchise department of the W. C. T. U. for ten years and has also done pioneer work in the franchise department of the Local Council of Women, under the auspices of which organization the league was started in this city.

Branches have been formed throughout the province, and the number is likely to be increased shortly as Mrs. Lashley Hall, the provincial organizer, commences an organizing campaign throughout the province in September. An interesting feature of the garden party this evening will be the address to be given by Mrs. Leonia W. Brown of Seattle, an energetic worker in the recent campaign in Washington, a lady who carried the American flag in one of the monster suffragist processions in London.

The garden party is an open affair to which the public is invited. The league is also planning to hold a series of parlor meetings throughout the month.

UNKNOWN CRIMINAL

Police Seeking to Find Person Who Supplied Liquor to Deceased Interdict

The provincial police authorities in the Slocan district have received special and explicit instructions to leave no possible action untaken that will serve to secure the identification and effectual prosecution of the person who supplied liquor to Donald Sinclair of Silverton, knowing him to have been placed on the interdicted list for his own protection and salvation. Sinclair in some manner secured liquor, although an interdict, and returning intoxicated to his cabin, accidentally set fire to it and lost his life in the destruction of his home. Commenting upon the case the Slocan Record, which is one of the most outspoken newspapers of the province, its style being in a measure reminiscent of that of the late John Houston's publications, says that "the person who supplied liquor to Donald Sinclair, knowing his weakness and that he had been placed on the interdicted list, is just as much a murderer as if he had wilfully started the fire that caused the old man's death. And those knowing the persons furnishing liquor to interdicted men who do not inform the police, are equally guilty with the bootleggers themselves."

"FRIENDS"

Williams Stock Company Gives Enjoyable Entertainment at the Princess.

To the theatre-going public of Victoria, the news that this city is to have a permanent stock company, of a high order, will no doubt be heard with considerable pleasure, and the fact that Mr. David Williams is the promoter and manager will be further appreciated. The former A. O. U. W. hall on Yates street, has been converted into a cosy family theatre, to be known as the "Princess." Mr. Williams stated that when he first arrived in this city with the idea of opening a family theatre his impressions as to the success he would attain in such an undertaking were anything but optimistic. That he has quite succeeded in his undertaking, was evident to all who have patronized the new Princess, on either of the last two nights. Judging from the applause which was accorded the Williams Stock company, after their portrayal of the comedy-drama "Friends" at the Princess last night, their debut in this city has been a favorable one. The company of players which Mr. Williams has engaged is a good aggregation and a well-balanced cast. The comedy "Friends" is a strong drama, depicting the hardships and loyalty of two young men, who were "up against it" in greater New York. Living in a stuffy room in a tenement house, and with only the one suit of clothes, with which to make an appearance on the street, they strove along as best they could, always acting as gentlemen, and never forgetting their vowed loyalty to one another as "Friends." Unfortunately they each fell in love with the same young lady artist of nobility and title. She accepted the hand of the younger as her suitor. The difficulties which arose during the courtship, on account of the drunken father wishing her to marry a scoundrel of his choice, and the staunch and firm manner in which the defeated young lover assisted his friend, though rival in love, makes for an interesting plot, which was admirably unwoven by Mr. Williams' excellent company. Mr. Williams himself, as John Paden, Sr., provided the comedy in a manner which highly elated the audience and gave them the impression that Mr. Williams is a natural comedian. W. H. Van Dyke as John Paden, Jr., enacted his part very admirably, and with credit to himself. Arthur Cyril, as Adrian Karje, the lover and Jack's friend, excelled himself. Byron Loucks, portraying the character of Hans Otto, the aged drunkard and opium fiend, possibly had the most difficult role, and his acting while supposedly suffering from delirium tremens, and the effect of his use of opium, made a deep impression with the audience. Miss Pinkie Mullalley, as Marguerite Otto, played the principal role in a difficult part. As the villain, George Sweatman succeeded in making an impression, and the remainder of the company, all deserve mention. The audience was fairly large and thoroughly appreciative. The comedy "Friends" will be continued each night during the remainder of this week. Next week the Williams Stock company will offer Jas. J. Corbett's comedy entitled "College Chums."

OBITUARY NOTICES

Cowgile—The funeral of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Cowgile took place from the Hanna chapel yesterday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock, where impressive services were conducted by the Rev. A. J. Stanley Ard. There were many friends present and the floral offerings were very numerous. The pallbearers were Messrs. D. Roper, J. Handley, T. Nirney, J. Turnbull, H. Stuckey and R. Matthews. Interment was made in the Ross Bay cemetery.

Wo—The remains of the late Bing Wo, the Chinaman, who was recently accidentally killed at Kitsilano, will be forwarded by the B. C. Funeral Furnishing Co. this afternoon per the Empress of India to China for interment.

Constable Exonerated.

The investigation which has just been conducted by Mr. W. H. Bullock-Webster, S. M., of Nelson, by virtue of a special commission to him directed under the Public Enquiries Act, into the official conduct of ex-Constable N. B. Ewart of Nicola, has resulted in a complete vindication of ex-Officer Ewart in so far as the investigated charges is concerned. The hearing of the matters in question took place at Princeton, Mr. Ewart being charged with having been guilty of drunkenness during his period of official service as representative of the majesty of the law at that place. The charge was preferred by Rev. Mr. Kinnear, who shortly afterwards left the valley, and who when called upon to substantiate his charges with evidence which he alleged to be in possession of when the charges were preferred, failed utterly to do so. Those who reside in Princeton express amazement at the nature of the charges laid against Mr. Ewart, one of the local papers apparently voicing the sentiments of the community in these terms: "Whatever faults he may have or mistakes he may have made, it was quite a new and surprising circumstance to those who knew Constable Ewart best to have his name associated with the charge of drunkenness, for while not pretending to be a total abstainer he has never been known to be a drinking man."

HERE AND THERE

A Great Loss

The News that Mrs. Perrin will not return to Victoria occasions widespread sorrow. As wife of the bishop of the diocese, Mrs. Perrin filled her social position with a gentle dignity and a genuine kindness that captured all hearts. She was president of the Women's Auxiliary to Missions and showed in that office an unaffected zeal and piety that influenced every member.

As president of the principal charitable society of the city, the Friendly Help, Mrs. Perrin manifested a sympathy with the poor, an executive ability and an appreciation of the good work done by others that called forth esteem, admiration and love. The sister society, the Home Nursing, now a branch of the Victorian Order of Nurses, looked upon Mrs. Perrin as one of its most useful officers.

In the Women's Council, of which she was vice-president, Mrs. Perrin's clear insight and Christian courtesy, gave her counsel great weight and it was only because she felt that her duties as a wife must not be neglected, that she was not made president. Victoria can ill afford to lose so sweet and good a woman and though all will wish her success and happiness in her new sphere, it will be long before her place is filled in the hearts of the women who knew her in Victoria.

Household Service

"Why should Jennie go to service?" asked a friend indignantly. "She is a well-educated, ladylike girl fit to associate with anybody." The same question is asked by mothers in every part of Canada. These women feel it no disgrace to do their own work. No household task is too hard for them to accomplish and none is too lowly. From scrubbing a floor to making the most delicious dessert, hands that often do not look too strong, are ready. The management of their houses is a matter of pride to these wives of mechanics, as well as business and often, professional men. But hint to the wife of a laborer that her daughter, who is about to enter or has just passed through High School, should undertake to do housework for a living and you raise a storm. As for the others whom we have been considering, you would be bold indeed, if you would even, except in very exceptional circumstances, broach such a proposition.

And yet the great majority of these daughters intend to earn their own living by working for other people. Some will serve the public as teachers. This must, as a rule, take them from home and subject them to the criticism of strangers. The work is hard and brings with it great responsibility. It requires qualities of heart and head which every woman does not possess. There is none, save only that of a mother, that is more important or that, if well done, brings a fuller reward. On the other hand there is none in which the conscientious woman, who fails, suffers so bitterly. Yet mothers send their daughters, sensitive or self-sufficient, earnest or shallow, to the Normal school with few misgivings. There was a time when to the educated girl no other career was open but that time has gone by.

Women as Secretaries

In all cities there is now a demand for women who can act as secretaries. In order to do this they must learn typewriting and stenography. While, in many cases such work is almost mechanical, the girl who would command a good salary and constant employment must not only work very hard but possess intelligence and self-reliance. She must, too, be thoroughly trustworthy so that the most important business and professional secrets are safe in her keeping.

There will always be typewriters who have little more initiative than the machines they operate. These are content with low wages and it is fortunate both for themselves and their employers that they rarely continue long at the work for which they are not fitted.

Openings in Hospitals

The long, hard training prevents any girl, who has not a real love for the work, from becoming a nurse. Besides, no very young girl is admitted to a hospital. Still few mothers object to nursing as a profession. There are no harder tasks than those which the young woman who intends to be a professional nurse must be prepared to perform, no service she must not be ready to render. When her training is over she is mistress of an exacting and very responsible profession. It is well paid, it is true, but then it requires the services of a woman in the prime of health and strength. The field for nursing is widening every year but it is not to be entered upon without counting well the cost.

Mechanical Employment

There are left the mechanical employment of milliner, dressmaker, bookbinder and the various kinds of factory work. In the three first women with artistic sense and mechanical ability may, if they have self-confidence and originality, hope to receive high salaries. But the apprenticeship is long and the work confining. There are seasons when work is slack. In the factories as we know them in the west there is not so much responsibility and while wages are better at the beginning there is less hope of advancement. Few girls go into a factory with the expectation of remaining long there.

The store has a great attraction for many young girls. The brightness, the pretty goods, the constant contact with people, combine to the inexperienced girl to make the position one greatly to be desired. She learns, all too soon, that the work is not always pleasant or easy, that customers are very often exacting and hard to please, that mistakes are very easy to make and that standing is very hard work.

Yet try to place a girl in any of these positions and you will in all probability find that you must wait for a vacancy, even if you are content to begin at the beginning.

Situations in Homes

There is only one opening for women, which the most inexperienced girl can find employment. This is household work. So far as Canadian girls are concerned, only the least ambitious and those of the most meagre education will apply for situations in the homes of other women. Are they wise? Household servants work in rooms that are bright and airy. They have good food, they are not exposed to temptation. They are well paid. Why then should good mothers look upon the proposal that their daughters should go to service with disdain? The question is well worth considering.

It may be that educated women from the old land will show us that there is nothing more degrading in cooking a dinner than in copying a letter; that keeping a house in order is quite as honorable as being head of a department or that the girl who cares for the baby and keeps little ones happy is filling as important a place in the economy of things as the teacher of the kindergarten. Perhaps we shall find that we are giving to strangers privileges and withholding them from our own family. When this is the case, household service will gain the social recognition it deserves. But until then our daughters will prepare for marriage in every other employment than that in which they will, in all probability, spend most of their time afterwards.

The Fall Fair

What are women doing in preparation for the fall fair which is to come earlier than usual this year? The Woman's building should have a finer and more original exhibit than has before been shown in Victoria. It is quite time that those who intend to exhibit were at work.

As women do most of the catering it might be suggested that there ought not to be any day or night, no matter how big the crowd, when every one on the grounds could not get enough to eat. Every one will want to go this year to see the exhibition of the resources of Vancouver Island to be made by the Development League. It is to the interest of the women's societies to minister to the needs of the visitors. There will it is to be hoped be good displays from all the Women's Institutes and from the domestic science centres of the Victoria schools. Will the Arts and Crafts society have a yet more interesting display than last year? It is to be hoped that every woman will do what she can to add to the value and interest of the fall fair and that no one will forget till the last day that a good attendance is a great attraction.

The City Library.

The report from the Carnegie Library shows that it is doing excellent work. Indeed, no one can go through the streets without seeing evidences of its popularity. It is, of course, greatly to be wished that all the volumes one sees girls bringing home on Saturday afternoons were of the highest class, instead of being borrowed for the sake merely of entertainment. But there are, after all, few of these books from which something may not be learned, and it is safe to say that the most superficial readers are wiser and better than those who do not read at all. The process of weeding out injurious books has been going quietly on and the worst that can be said of those that are left is that a few of them contain very little mental nourishment. On the other hand, there are excellent books on the shelves and many of these are being eagerly read. There is, however, urgent need that more books be purchased for adult readers, and that a plentiful supply of good literature should be provided for the children. The sum asked for in the proposed by-law will, it is considered, suffice for three years with the ordinary grant. Victoria is spending very liberally for the purpose of making the city beautiful and attractive. Nothing will add more to the pleasure and the profit of all classes and ages than a good and a large collection of books in the public library. We have not a big building, but one which would serve the needs of the city for some time to come if it were well furnished. All who have had occasion to borrow books are unanimous in praise of the kindness and attention received from members of the present staff. Let them be given an opportunity to prove their efficiency when a better supply of books will attract a greater number of patrons.

Prison Farms.

A prison farm is to be established in St. John, New Brunswick. There is one in Ontario, and the government of this province is about to set the prisoners to work on the land near Vancouver.

Wherever these farms have been tried they have proved most effective in the reform of those unfortunates who are rather weak than wicked. The regular work in the open air, the good food and the kind treatment help to build up strength both of body and mind. As long as it is necessary to have a jail at Victoria ought there not to be a farm attached? It may be that sanguine experimenters describe the results of this method of treatment in too glowing terms. But where testimony in favor of any plan is unanimous, it must be accepted as, in the main, true. Certainly the old way in this case is not the best. There are many ways of improving a city and to lessen the number of its criminals is not the least important.

SLASHED WITH KNIFE

Millionaire Pennsylvania Coal Operator Badly Wounded by Foreigner—Assailant Arrested

SOMERSET, Penn., Aug. 1.—Daniel B. Zimmerman, millionaire coal operator and ranch owner, is in a serious condition tonight from knife wounds inflicted today by Antonio Sicilian, a foreigner. Sicilian is locked up under $5000 bail, charged with intent to kill. Sicilian attacked Zimmerman at the Ralphton mine of the Quemahoning Coal company, six miles from here. Zimmerman is believed to have been saved from death by maps, lead pencils and other articles in the breast pockets of his coat. The foreigner's knife, however, cut through all of these and made serious wounds on Zimmerman's chest. There are also cuts on the abdomen, arms and legs.

Zimmerman and Sicilian have engaged in a number of lawsuits, it is said, in the past year.

Judge Lampman of this city is to take the sitting of the county court opening on the 7th instant at Prince Rupert.

Fall Suits Are Here

We have just received a shipment of CANADIAN MADE SUITS for Fall. The previous year has taught us that Victoria ladies are fully aware that the "style feature" is just as much in evidence on CANADIAN MADE costumes as on the most expensive imported models.

Linings are of silk and satin and GUARANTEED to wear two years, a feature that no lady can afford to miss. Among the new materials are Coronation Tweeds and there are a few models in velvet. In accordance with the new styles the coats vary from 27 to 29 inches in length, while the skirts are slightly widened with inverted plaits for those who do not care for the pannels.

As usual our prices are far beyond competition, starting from as low as $15.75.

Our CASH principle affords you a saving that can be obtained only here. To those who have not visited us we most earnestly solicit their patronage, feeling perfectly confident that we can hold it.

PORTLAND, Aug. 1.—Stovall came to bat four times today and registered a hit to get on each occasion, a circumstance that figured materially in Portland's score, especially in the winning run. The locals had things all their own way until the eighth frame, when Bloomfield blew up to the tune of six runs. McCreery was hit consistently and effectively throughout the contest. Score:

Notes.

Usually McCreery is spoken of as a lucky pitcher. He didn't wear the rabbit's foot yesterday.

Again the Victorians have a weak pitching staff. Furchner is under the doctor's care. He took cold in his business arm the other day and has been nursing it ever since.

Dashwood has caught on with Seattle. He is going to take Spencer's place. The latter will go to the Western Canadian league in all probability.

Ben Davis appears to have recovered from his weakness with the stick since leaving Victoria. The latest exchanges show that he is batting with the best, the game recorded giving him credit for two hits. Reddick isn't doing as well.

Cocash now wears a Spokane uniform. In Monday's game with Seattle he was four times to bat and whiffed on each and every occasion.

One of the best known sporting writers of the northwest, J. Newton Colver, of the Spokesman-Review, was in the city yesterday. He passed through en route to Vancouver. Returning today he will make a point of witnessing some of the tennis matches, because, although Mr. Colver's pet diversion is toying with the intricacies of baseball batting, fielding and other averages, he likes the milder form of recreation. Besides Joe Tyler, who is from his home town, is one of the stars in the local tournament, and naturally Mr. Colver wishes to see how he disposes of some of his rivals. Mr. Colver is accompanied by Mrs. Colver.

President Dugdale is quoted as saying that, when Shea, Raymond and Bues, working the relay game, caught Ten Million off third base in Sunday's game it was the first time he ever saw the play used in baseball. "In the old days," said Dug, "we had what was termed '66.' I mean by that, that when third and second were occupied, the catcher would fire the ball to the third sacker just where he stood and he would make a quick relay to second, catching the runner off the bag. Sunday's play was a reversal of '66,' and when it gets around among the players it will be pulled off in the big leagues."

Outfielder Melchoir, who has been with San Francisco in the Coast league, has been signed by President Cohn, of Spokane, and will join the team next week. Cocash is playing centre in the meantime.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 1.—Because officials of the Brooklyn National League baseball club had given Pitcher Bacon permission to play in an exhibition game at Long Branch, N. J., on July 17, the club was fined $50 by the National Baseball commission today. The rule under which this action was taken was made in the first place at the instance of President Ebbetts of Brooklyn. It provides that National agreement players may appear only with the clubs holding their contracts and was promulgated to prevent independent teams from obtaining major leaguers as attractions in opposition to the regularly scheduled games.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 1.—According to reports here today, Pitcher Marty O'Toole, purchased from the St. Paul American association club by Pittsburg, for $22,500, will report here for duty on Friday. Catcher James Kelly may arrive with him.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 1.—Following a conference here tonight between President Russell of the Boston Nationals and Manager McGaw of the New York club, announcement was made that Mike Donlin had been sold to Boston. The sale was outright, no other players figuring. The price was not stated.

"BILLY" LANE WON'T BOX GUNNER BROWN

"Billy" Lane, who was slated to meet Gunner Brown in one of the bouts of the amateur boxing tournament fixed for Tuesday, the 8th inst., announces that he will be unable to fill the engagement. He states that he will not have time to put himself in condition, but says that he would be pleased to enter the ring against the stalwart Tommy at a later date.

SCHWENGERS MAKES A DEEP IMPRESSION.

Victoria's Tennis Star Looked Upon as Dangerous from Tournament's Opening Day

Evidently "Bernie" Schwengers, the local tennis star and now holder of the Canadian championship, made quite a deep impression among the enthusiasts of the east. After one of his first games in the tournament at Ottawa he was picked by the majority as the winner of the title. His style and effectiveness were praised by the newspapers, it being remarked that the westerner was the man who would have to be beaten. That he wasn't set down is an old story, and shows how correct the critics were in the estimate of his ability after having witnessed him in action.

Schwengers' match against Bonner, rated as quite a first-class man in the east, was looked forward to with interest, says the Ottawa Free Press: "Those who saw Schwengers dispose of Bonnell in the men's open singles are all the more convinced that he is the man to beat for the championship. The man to beat for the championship. The match was a corker, notwithstanding the somewhat treacherous footing. The first set resulted in a score of 7 to 5 for the man from the west, the Ottawan making him let out to the last notch. When the players turned over, however, the powerful driving of Schwengers, combined with his wonderful returning ability and remarkable dexterity enabled him to win out the second set quite handily, the score being 6-1."

At present, as will be noted by a despatch printed elsewhere, the Victorian, with his partner, Mr. Macrae, is participating in the Quebec tournament and is meeting with continued success. He will not go to the National American tournament at Newport until later on this month.

To Find a "Hope."

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Another roundup of "white hopes" is planned with a view to picking a challenger of world champion Jack Johnson. The National Sporting Club of America here issued an invitation to heavyweights today to attend a tournament on August 10. The winner will be matched with Al Palzer, who won the "white hope" elimination tournament here recently.

CHAMPION WINS IN QUEBEC TOURNEY

MONTREAL, Que., Aug. 1.—The feature of the Quebec tennis championships today was the presence of Schwengers and McRae of Victoria. Schwengers had an easy victory over Jellett, a local player, but McRae was put out of the running by Holland of Westmount. McRae was the only outsider in handicapped events with a handicap of minus 1-2 30.

The great theological convention at Vancouver is at an end.

CLOSE PLAY AT TENNIS COURTS

Victoria's Tournament Yesterday Developed Some Keenly Contested Matches—Public Appreciative

The play yesterday in the annual Victoria Tennis club tournament developed some interesting games. In the men's singles there was one contest that roused the enthusiasm of spectators especially. It was that in which Messrs. Jewell of Victoria and Pearce of Kamloops were the principals. The former won out after the hardest kind of a fight, the visitor continuing the struggle until the last point was registered.

Another important match was that between Taylor and Green, the former being of this city and the latter from Vancouver, the victory going to Taylor, 1-6, 6-3, 15-13. Foulkes, Tyler, Garrett, Cardinal and Marshall, all of whom are in the running for the championship were successful. In the other classes there were no arguments of outstanding consequence unless those in which Foulkes and Tyler and Garrett and Marshall—both strong partnerships—were triumphant.

Thus far the tournament has been a greater success than the management expected. Yesterday the attendance was large. There are more than fifty visiting tennis players participating. This is a record for the city. The class of play, taking it all round, also shows an improvement in spite of the fact that there is considerable disappointment because Mr. Schwengers, the champion, is not present to defend his title. Messrs. Foulkes, Marrehall, Tyler, Cardinal, Rhodes, Garrett, Conrad Schwengers—a brother of the star now competing for eastern honors—and Harrison are looked upon as the principal rivals for the position voluntarily vacated my Mr. B. Schwengers. In the ladies' singles Miss McIvor of Duncan is a strong player, while Mrs. Talbot looks like going close.

It is expected that some close games will mark the series drawn for today.

JOHNSON AND THE STARS AND STRIPES

Dusky Heavyweight Champion Threatens to Become British Citizen—England "Just Dandy."

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Looks as if the land of the free and the home of the brave were going to lose one of its most prominent members, Mister "Jack" Johnson, America's leading manufacturer of jolts, uppercuts and swings. His reception in London, where his solid gold smile and illustrated wearing apparel divided interest with the coronation itself, has pulled the props out from under his patriotism. Here is an interview printed in the Evening Herald of Dublin:

"England is treating me just dandy," said the black pugilist. "Oh, but it's grand. I would fight for England, if she wanted me to, and glad to."

"And when are you going back to America?" asked the reporter. t

"Not until I'm forced to, and then I'm coming back as quickly as I can. It is sure a fine country, England."

"How did you celebrate your anniversary?"

"Very quietly," answered Johnson. "My wife cooked me the same dinner as she did before the fight. We had some friends and ducks and chickens, and other chickens and melons and things. I never celebrate for America. What has America done for me? Has it ever given me a square deal? Did it ever give me a shout when I won? Not on your life. Say, son, I've given up thinking about America."

WESTERN TENNIS MEN LOSE IN FINAL GAMES

LAKE FOREST, Ill., Aug. 1.—It will be a case of east versus south in the final round of the national doubles preliminaries tomorrow afternoon at the Onwentsia Tennis courts, Gustav Touchard and Raymond D. Little of New York having defeated Maurice E. McLoughlin of San Francisco and Thomas C. Bundy of Los Angeles, 6-4; 6-4; 7-9; 3-6; 10-8; while H. E. Doyle and Conrad B. Doyle of Washington, D. C. brothers, defeated C. M. Bull, jr., and Harry Martin of New York, western champions 6-4; 8-6; 6-1 in the first round this afternoon.

Doyle brothers were masters of the New York team from the start. Bull and Martin did not play half the game they had done in the western tournament last week, and were easy victims for the southerners. The Doyles played perfect teamwork, that of H. E. Doyle at the net being one of the factors which gave his team the victory.

The other match was filled with tennis of the best grade, and it was nip and tuck between the two pairs from the second set on.

McLoughlin and Bundy were the better individual players, but the teamwork of Little and Touchard was better.

McLoughlin's unsteadiness in the last set when he had two chances to win and a third to save the match by taking his own service game, was greatly responsible for the defeat of the Pacific coast team.

Bundy played poorly in the early part of the match and his mechanical work was less excellent than McLoughlin's but his steadiness in the crisis was what saved the Californians in several instances.

The teamwork of the easterners was far better than that of the Californians and their victory was deserved. McLoughlin was the greatest individual star in the mechanical part, but his generalship was poor. Had he permitted a hard hit ball to go outside in the last game he would have taken the game and prolonged the match indefinitely and probably would have won for his team, as Touchard and Little both were showing signs of fatigue, while Bundy and McLoughlin apparently were as fresh as they were when they started.

Little had one of his brilliant days. He outpointed McLoughlin, against whom he was playing, time after time. Touchard also displayed remarkable cleverness.

Cowichan Bay Fishing

Mr. J. Morten writes from Cowichan Bay stating that the salmon fishing has started in those waters. He says that Mr. H. H. Shandley of Victoria made a splendid catch less than a week ago, his largest fish weighing twenty-six pounds. There have been several other good baskets secured.

WANT NO MORE AIRY PRICES FOR PLAYERS

CHICAGO, Aug., 1.—Seven members of the American Association baseball clubs and President T. M. Chivington of the organization, met here today in secret session and after several hours wrangling reached a decision which resulted in the drawing up of a proposition to be presented to Garry Herrmann, chairman of the National commission. Several members of the league who were present refused to discuss the petition but it is reported on good authority that it is based on a proposed classification clause which makes the price of a ball player not more than $5000 when a sale is contemplated to the major leagues.

Further information is that the American Association is handicapped in purchasing a player from the minor leagues because of the present classification clause.

Tribute from Ball Fans.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Aug. 1.—If any doubt exists in the mind of Charles A. Dooin, manager of the Philadelphia Nationals, as to the position he occupies in the hearts of St. Louis baseball fans, he can set that fear at rest, for one of the prettiest testimonials of esteem and affection baseball has known was paid the sorrel-topped one by St. Louis fans when a number of wealthy citizens wired to President Lynch, of the National League, asking that Sherwood Magee be reinstated as a tribute to Charley Dooin, who has done so much to elevate baseball. The telegram also shows the strain of St. Louis sportsmanship. It is a splendid tribute to St. Louis and to the man who lies today suffering from the effect of the accident at League park when his leg was broken. Among those who have signed the voluntary appeal to President Lynch are J. A. Lewis, cashier of the National Bank of Commerce; Lyman T. Hay and Walter B. Lawine, of the Jefferson Hotel, and S. C. Stiller, director of afflictics of the city of New York.

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—The local Americans got revenge on the Chicago Americans by whining both ends of a double-header today. Caldwell pitched the first game and was invincible until the eighth while Ford, in the second game, was steady in the pinches. Hartzell and Daniels were put off the field in the last inning of the first game for protesting decisions. Catcher Payne retired from the second game when his thumb was hit by a foul tip. Scores:

SAN FRANCICO, Aug. 1.—Portland took the first game of its series with San Francisco here today by a score of 6 to 2. Heavy hitting, errorless fielding and good teamwork gave Portland the victory. Peckinpaugh made a double play unassisted and Ryan made two home runs. Steen held San Francisco to eight hits, while Portland registered 13 off Henley. Ryan batted 1000 per cent, making four hits out of four times at bat.

SACRAMENTO, Aug. 1.—Spider Baum lost his game today to Oakland by a 2 to 1 score, his teammates presenting the visitors with their runs in the fourth inning when with two men out, errors by Danzig, Shinn and Heister and a single by Gregory went for two tallies. Shinn's third gave the locals their run but after that inning only four Senators got on the bases and only one went as far as second. Captain O'Rourke directed his team from the grand stand.

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 1.—Vernon found Halla's pitching to their liking in the fifth today and coupled with Moore's high throw to first on Kane's drive, got four runs, defeating Los Angeles, 6 to 2. George Wheeler, veteran pitcher and utility man with Los Angeles last year, umpired the game with McGreevy. The latter will not work the rest of the week.

THOSE LIKELY TO BE LIBERAL NOMINEES

Independent to Run in Comox-Atlin District—Messrs. J. H. Senkler and J. W. Weart for Mainland Cities

Mr. George W. Morrow, formerly of Prince Rupert and a well known resident of the Comox-Atlin district, has announced himself an independent Liberal candidate in that constituency in the approaching elections for the Ottawa House. Strenuous efforts are being made by the friends of Mr. Duncan Ross to secure his withdrawal as his candidature would obviously weaken that of Mr. Ross, should the latter secure the party nomination for which he is a candidate.

It is understood that a convention of the Conservatives of the district will be held very shortly to nominate the candidate, the first in the field for the honor of bearing the Conservative banner to victory being Mr. Thomas E. Bate of Cumberland. Mr. William Manson, mayor of Prince Rupert and representative of Skeena in the local legislature, who was mentioned as a rival candidate, has stated it to be his intention not to run.

In Nanaimo it is expected that Mr. Ralph Smith will be the Liberal nominee in this city, Hon. Mr. Templeman, in Vancouver, Mr. J. H. Senkler, while in New Westminster, Mr. J. W. Weart of Burnaby is already in the field. Liberal nominees are not yet announced in Yale-Cariboo or in Kootenay, where Messrs. Martin Burrell and A. S. Goodeve are recognized as so strong that no Liberal rival appears to relish the task of attempting to replace them.

ISLAND SWIMMING EVENTS SATURDAY

Splendid Programme Prepared for Annual Races—Entries from Many Points

At a general meeting of the B. C. A. S. A. held on Monday evening it was decided to hold the island half of the B. C. championships at the Gorge beach on August 12th. The necessary committees were appointed for taking this in hand.

The following are the events to be held:

Championships—Junior: 50 and 220 yards. Senior: 100, 440 and 1760 yards. Relay race (teams of 4) distance 200 yards.

Extras—Ladies 50 yards; tub race; ball dribbling contest and diving.

If time permits an exhibition of Royal Life Saving Society's methods of saving life from drowning, releasing from clutch of the drowning and Schafer's resuscitation of the apparently drowned will be given by two members of the society.

It was decided also to affiliate with the Canadian Amateur Swimming association, and the secretary was instructed to write the mainland branch and complete arrangements.

It is hoped, in view of the proposed affiliation, that two of the Canadian championships will be allotted to British Columbia, and as these must be held in fresh water it is possible Victoria will be honored, as the B. C. A. S. A. will try to make arrangements with the Y. M. C. A. to have them in their new tank, which fulfils all championship requirements, being, as it is, 60 feet by 20 feet.

P. R. Pomfret resigned the secretary-treasurership of the Island branch and Mr. A. J. Brace will act in this capacity until the annual meeting, which takes place in this city on the 12th inst.

SHE HAD CONSTANT PAIN

Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dewittville, N.Y.—"Before I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered nearly all the time with headaches, backaches, and bearing down pains, and had a continuous pain in my left side. It made me sick if I tried to walk much, and my back was so weak that I was obliged to wear corsets all the time.

But now I do not have any of these troubles. I have a fine strong baby daughter now, which I did not have before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—MRS. A. A. GILES, Route 44, Dewittville, N.Y.

The above is only one of the thou[redacted]ful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

REPORTED FIND OF ANTHRACITE COAL

Tug Nidge Brings Story from Jordan River that Workers Have Located Eight Foot Seam

The tug Nidge from Jordan river brings a report of a find of a big seam of anthracite coal eight feet thick on a hill back of the camp of the Vancouver Island Power company. The camp was much excited over the report when the tug left but none had investigated it and opinion was divided on the tugboat as to the authenticity of the report.

The story was brought by returned workmen, and was to the effect that when cutting the right of way for a railroad for the V. I. P. Co. and the Canadian Puget Sound Lumber company the railroad workers uncovered coal. It was hard coal, anthracite, they said, and the story was to the effect that the seam uncovered was no less than eight feet thick. If this report proves correct the find will mean much to Vancouver Island. Heretofore only soft coal has been mined on the island.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Harbor Railway.

Sir:—It is commonly represented by the promoters of this undertaking that the majority of persons owning water frontage are willing to give a free right-of-way in consideration of the advantages that they would receive. Do these people understand that any such easement or right-of-way in front of, or over their property, will be entered at the registry office as an encumbrance on their estate and would reduce its value in the open market?

It may be taken as nearer the fact that not one in ten of the property owners affected would make any such concession, and that the majority would have to be expropriated under the terms of the Railway Act. We may, therefore, reasonably suppose that the total cost of the undertaking will be so much out of proportion to the revenue likely to be received that it will hardly commend itself to the ratepayers or to the money market as a businesslike proposition.

It is also open to consideration as to whether this proposition is the best solution of the problem, or in any way desirable. Seattle, being close at hand, and well known to most of us, is a good illustration. The Harbour Railway proper is along Railroad avenue, the main broad thoroughfare nearest to the water, and connection is made with such wharves or warehouses as may require it, by special spurs or sidings to suit their purpoe. There is thus no infringement of private property; no property is subservient to any other interests; each property enjoys it own right and its own special convenience. This is not peculiar to Seattle, but is the plan that experience has shown to be the best in the interest of the development of the trade and commerce of all ports. Now why should not this system be adopted here?

The next question would be, who should develop, own and operate such a railway? Either a syndicate of railways, most interested in the collection and distribution of merchandise, or the city itself, as one of its means of public intercommunictaion. In Montreal it is owned by the Harbour Board, as a public trust; in Philadelphia it is a municipal undertaking; and I would submit that the city should own, not only all its streets, but all that is permanently connected with its streets in trust for the commonwealth. If this Harbour Railway was laid down on the public thoroughfares adjacent to the water frontage, it would foster the development of industries and commerce. As these industries and commercial enterprises develop, they could be connected up, when and how they needed, with this general system of distribution. The city might enter into an agreement with any railway company or street railway company for the operation by such company of the corporation's harbor tracks and harbour lines, by any motive power and so at all times to afford all other railways or street railway companiees whose lines reach the harbour the same facilities for traffic as those enjoyed by such company.

Under such circumstances all the mills and manufactories would readily seek to connect with the railways, but few of them would willingly connect with any tracks over their premises not owned and operated in their own exclusive interest.

I therefore submit that the proposed Harbour Railway, now before the Council, is not for the general advantage of the city and port of Victoria, and, further, that the city engineer should be instructed to lay before the council a scheme, based on the foregoing suggestions, with a view to its submission to the ratepayers for their approval.

THOS. C. SORBY.

AMUSEMENTS

Pictures at Gorge Park—Some of the best moving pictures shown this season at the Gorge park are on view this week at the poular place of amusement where hundreds of Victorians go nightly to find cool breezes at the picturesque resort by the side of the waters of Victoria Arm. The Aviation Meet at St. Louis, showing the gathering of the birdmen at the Missouri city, and the flights of the aviators is one of the most interesting films produced for some time in the city. There are five other most interesting pictures shown nightly as follows: Romeo Turns Bandit; The Lost Trail; Alice in Wonderland; Hero and Leanders, and Saved by the Flag. These are excellent pictures. The Gorge orchestra is rendering a good programme of music nightly and the dancing pavilion and other attractions offer amusement to many.

Majestic Theatre—For today and tomorrow an all feature programme will be shown. "The Puncher's New Love," a dramatic picture with scenes laid in the east and west. A puncher deserts his western sweetheart for a girl from the east but later pays the price for his folly. "Hungry Hearts," showing two children deprived of parental love, feign sickness and win that for which they hunger, a pathetically beautiful picture with a joyful ending. "A New Life," a story of a woman who shoots a burglar and then nurses him back to health and a better life. He repays by driving away his pal who ultimately comes to rob. "How Spriggins Took Lodgers. This farce is taken from "Ici on Parle Francais. The well known and liked English farce. It is a laugh from beginning to the end.

Crystal Theatre: The Unloaded Gun A typical Western story is what we have in The Unloaded Gun, and one well enacted and finely photographed. The bandit, after escaping punishment for one crime, is finally caught at another, and, bluffed with an unloaded rifle, is held captive until the sheriff and his posse can arrest him. The scenes are truly Western and the story is consistent in all its details. Besides this feature are three big reels of comedy and drama. We have changed our service and can guarantee a good and well balanced programme. Don't forget the Baby Contest which is now on. We have 26 of the prettiest babies in the city on exhibition and want more. Bring in your photos. Come and see and vote on those shown. They are numbered and you vote on the numbers. The age limit is three years and the prize to one receiving the largest number of votes $5.00. They are worth seeing.

The large new factory of the British Columbia Milk Condensing Co., erected at a cost of $30,000, in the vicinity of Chilliwack has begun operations. The capacity of the plant is 5,000 lb. per hour and the bulk of the milk supply will be secured locally. This will make the dairy industry the most profitable in the Valley, the output of the two creameries totalling 500,000 lb. of butter per annum, in addition to which both Vancouver and New Westminster draw largely upon the Valley for their milk and cream supplies.

A sash and door factory has been established at Hazelton and is doing a rushing business.

INABA MARU LEAVES OUTWARD

Nippon Yusen Kaisha Liner Sailed from the Outer Wharf Yesterday for Ports of the Far East

KAMAKURA MARU TO ARRIVE THIS MORNING

Japanese Naval Officers Among Passengers of Inaba Maru Report that Admiral Togo Will Sail from Victoria

Japanese naval officers who have been studying in Germany, Lieut.-Commanders T. Hatano and K. Komwa, were among the passengers of the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Inaba Maru, which sailed from the outer wharf yesterday on her return voyage to Japanese and Chinese ports. The Japanese naval officers, who attended the coronation of King George V, state that Admiral Count Togo is to come to Victoria at the end of this month and embark from this city for home on the Japanese liner Tamba Maru, which leaves Yokohama today for this port. Admiral Togo and his staff will journey westward through Canada via the Canadian Pacific Railroad. Other passengers of the N. Y. K. steamer were Mr. Sydney Webb, the British socialist, and wife; Rev. James Moyes and wife, who were married here on Monday night, missionaries bound to China; J. S. Hooker and wife, missionaries; Dr. H. C. Little of St. Paul; Prof. Takasage and sixteen members of the Waseda baseball team, returning to Japan after a tour of this country; Mrs. F. S. Douglas and her daughter; S. Asuma and S. Oku, of Tacoma, bound for Yokohama; R. Shersly, E. A. Tymms, M. S. Ogawa, a contractor of Vancouver, and A. Kashiwa, also of that city, are among the saloon passengers.

Prof. T. Takasugi, of Waseda University, who was in charge of the baseball party, is a prominent Japanese educationalist, and a friend of Count Okuma. When he came to this continent he bore a message from Count Okuma to the United States: "Go tell America that not one person in Japan wants war."

The cargo of the Japanese steamer included the largest shipment of flour sent across the Pacific this season in any of the transpacific liners, a total of 2658 tons.

The steamer Kamakura Maru of the same line reports from sea by wireless that she will dock by noon today at the outer wharf inbound from Kobe and Yokohama. The Japanese steamer has a very large shipment of raw silk on board, 1091 bales worth over $600,000. For Victoria the steamer has 333 tons of general freight, 904 tons weight for shipment overland, and 363 tons measurement for Seattle and Tacoma.

The Chicago Maru of the Osaka Shosen Kaisha line, and the R. M. E. Empress of Japan are en route across the Pacific. The Japanese steamer left Yokohama on July 25th and is due here Wednesday, and the Empress of Japan, which sailed from Yokohama yesterday, is due on August 12th.

RUSSIAN PAPER ON SEALING AGREEMENT

Novoe Vremya Suggests That Sealers Should Have Been Bought Out—Asks Duma not to Ratify.

That the four nations which signed the pelagic sealing treaty, Britain, United States, Russia and Japan, should have bought out the Canadian and Japanese sealers is the opinion of the Novoe Vremya of St. Petersburg. The Russian paper calls upon the Duma not to ratify the agreement, which it refers to as derogatory, inequitable and ineffective. The Novoe Vremya is of opinion that the agreement, which comes into force in the spring, will be followed by poaching operations by vessels using other flags than the signatory powers.

SPOKANE HAULED OUT

Tenders Will Be Invited by Underwriters for Repairs to P. C. S. S. Co.'s Excursion Steamer.

The steamer Spokane of the Pacific Coast Steamship Co., will be hauled out of the Moran yards today to be surveyed, and bids will then be called for the necessary repairs to the vessel by the underwriters. It is expected that sixty days will be required to effect repairs to the excursion steamer of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company, and this will prevent the vessel making further trips north this year. The Queen is looking after this business.

Charters Reported.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—The Russian mark Isabel Browne, now at Callao, has been chartered to load new crop wheat at Tacoma for the United Kingdom at 29 shillings 3 pence. She will come north in ballast. The British steamer Queen Alexandra arrived at Redondo Saturday night with a cargo of railroad ties from Japan for the Santa Fe Railroad. After discharging she will proceed to the Sound to load general cargo for European ports in the Maple Leaf line of T. C. Evans & Sons. She will leave the Sound abou. August 20, and sail from San Francisco about September 1. The British steamer Queen Elizabeth, reported a few days ago as chartered by J. & A. Brown for coal from Newcastle, Australia, for San Francisco, has been chartered outward by the American Trading Company. She will load lumber on the Sound in September for an Australian port.

The population of Duncan is stated to be seven hundred and fifty-one.

IMMIGRANTS WILL COME VIA PANAMA

Mr. H. F. Alexander, of Alaska-Pacific Steamship Co., Tells of Expected Changes in Steamship Trade.

That the completion of the Panama canal will not only be followed by the coming of new steamship lines to Victoria and other ports of the Pacific coast, but will also result in a large immigrant business, is the opinion of Mr. H. F. Alexander, president of the Alaska Pacific Steamship Company, who has returned to Tacoma from an extended eastern trip.

"During the past few weeks while in the East I became impressed with the attitude of the people toward the Pacific Coast states and their future following the opening of the Panama canal," said Mr. Alexander. "The people of the Eastern seaboard talk a great deal more about the Panama canal than do the people on this coast, who are even more vitally affected.

"It is the unanimous opinion, and I believe justly so, that the opening of the big ditch will spell wonders for this region. That the Hamburg-American line, in purchasing large holdings in Portland, is to run its steamers directly to this coast is evident, and it is further known that the North German-Lloyd steamers and the Blue Funnel liners also are to make direct trips to San Francisco, Portland, Tacoma and Seattle.

The coming of these steamers, and they will not be alone in this service, means the dawning of a new day on the Pacific Coast. The people here do not realize what an epoch in the history of the coast is to be marked by the opening of direct communication with Europe via the Panama canal. At the present time it costs the immigrants landing in New York $60 to make the trip to the Pacific coast. This is about what it costs them to cross the Atlantic. They are so far from the country where it would be possible for them to get a start in their old occupations of farming that they do not make the attempt, but instead settle in the Eastern cities. When the Panama canal is opened they will no doubt be able to reach the Pacific Coast ports for about $10 more than it now costs them to get to New York. Here they will find a new country waiting for them. With their advanced methods of intensified farming they will bring the one element the coast lacks at the present time, an adequate rural population.

SURVIVORS OF WRECKED PURITAN

Capt. Chapman and Some of Crew Are Landed at San Francisco by the Steamer Mariposa.

Survivors of the British bark Puritan wrecked in the South Seas have arrived at San Francisco on the steamer Mariposa from Tahiti, bringing news that all hands are safe. The Puritan, laden with coal from Newcastle, Australia, was proceeding towards this point when a severe gale was encountered, causing her to spring a leak. Soon it was seen that the ship was sinking and she was hurriedly abandoned, the captain and crew taking to the small boats. Hardly had they left the vessel when she went to the bottom.

For 12 days the captain, third mate and 12 sailors were exposed to the tropical sun and the night air without shelter, and with only a small stock of provisions. Capt. Chapman took charge of the water supply and the mate doled out the provisions, endeavoring to make them last until relief came. Five of the seamen became delirious, and but for a strict watch kept by the officers would have succeeded in taking by force more than their share of the food. Just as the water was about exhausted they reached the little island of Anca, one of the Paumoto group, where a fresh supply was obtained. Here the shipwrecked men were cared for by missionaries, who prevailed on seven of them to remain, the others resolving to continue the voyage to Tahiti in their boat.

Five days after the captain's arrival at this island, the second boat, containing the second officer and eight of the crew, reached the place, having suffered hardships even greater than those experienced by the others. The first officer traded his lifeboat for a cutter, with which he and his wife started for Papeete. All of the men were weak from hunger and suffering and those in the captain's boat were scarcely able to pull themselves ashore.

To add to their distress, on one occasion the steamer Mariposa was sighted, but her attention could not be attracted, and she passed on her way to Papeete, where the shipwrecked sailors arrived the following day. Here they were taken on board the Mariposa, which brought them to this city. Just before leaving Papeete the second boat was seen nearing the port.

VENTURE ARRIVES FROM NORTH

Boscowitz Steamer Brings Many Passengers—Tragedy at Prince Rupert—Red Cliff Ready to Ship Ore

The steamer Venture, of the Boscowitz steamship company, reached port yesterday morning from Northern British Columbia ports with forty passengers, after an uneventful voyage. The Venture brought news that the sockeye run is falling off on the Skeena and on Rivers inlet and Naas harbor. The Venture will leave for the north again tomorrow night. Included among the passengers of the steamer were several who made the round trip as tourists.

News was brought by the Venture of a tragedy at Prince Rupert on Thursday, the body of George Lichtlaner, known as "George the Crabman," was found on the shore opposite the city with his dog standing guard beside the body. The news said there was suspicion of foul play. There was a wound on the left temple and the face was covered with blood. In the shack nearby the dead man had a sack of provisions, purchased a day previously, and at the door lay a flounder, obviously but recently caught. The dead man went to Prince Rupert from Texas, and was popular at the northern city, where he played the piano often at social gatherings.

News was brought that the Red Cliff mins is expected to start shipping copper-gold ore to the Tyee smelter at Ladysmith in a few days. Mr. A. Erskine Smith, manager, said: "Our ore bunkers are filled and we are smelting only the completion of the twelve miles of track connecting the Red Cliff district with Stewart to begin shipping. The railroad has been promised for some time, and Messrs. Mackenzie and Mann have assured us that they will complete the line before August 1. The tracks will be laid right under our bunkers.

"We are drifting on ore in three levels, and it appears as though Red Cliff Mountain were largely composed of valuable mineral bodies. The ore we are selling to the Tyee smelter is about equal parts of copper and gold and we shall ship 100 tons a day if the boat service is as good as we expect.

"Our water power system is complete and we have discarded the old steam equipment. The gravity tram from mine to bunkers will be completed during the first week in August, and then we shall start shipping in earnest."

The steamer Princess Ena was at Prince Rupert discharging a steam roller, weighing ten tons, for the northern city.

ROYAL MAIL LINE MAY COME HERE

Report Current That Big British Company Anticipates Running Steamers to North Pacific Coast.

The report is current that the Royal Mail Steam Packet line will establish a steamship line to Victoria and other Northern Pacific coast ports via the Panama canal, when that waterway is completed. It will be remembered that Mr. Lowrey, head of the London Salvage association, who was a recent visitor to Victoria, expressed the opinion that such a move was likely when discussing the probably development, which would follow the opening of the isthmian cannal. This company, which has been constantly expanding its services, recently acquired the Glen line of steamers running to China and Japan from England.

The Royal Mail Steam Packet company was incorporated in 1839 by royal charter, with a subsidy of £240,000. In 1857 the company temporarily took over the carriage of the Australian mails via Suez. In 1869 the West Indian Mail line was extended to Colon. In 1869 the South American main line was continued to Buenos Ayres (doing away with branch steamers from Brazil), developing by 1872 into a fortnightly service, and later into a weekly service. Cargo services are now operated from Glasgow and London to the West Indies and Central America; and from Newport, Swansea, Hull and Antwerp to Brazil; also a line to Cuba and Mexico from Newcastel, Antwerp and London, via Havanna direct, and from Hull and London to the River Plate. The West Indian mail subsidy, which had dwindled to £85,000 a year, was allowed by the government to lapse in 1905, much against the expressed wishes of the colonies. The company availed themselves of the freedom to extend their West Indian mail line service to New York via Jamaica, maintaining their communication with the West Indian and British Guiana colonies. In August, 1907, a contract was made for a fortnightly inter-colonial service from and to Barbados, ristinct from the transatlantic service (run without subsidy). The Aragon, 9,795 tons, which sailed on her maiden voyage July 14, 1905, was the first of a series of similar vessels for the Brazil and River Plate route. The Amazon, 10,037 tons, and Araguaya, 10,537 tons, were launched in 1906, the Avon, 11,072, and Asturias, 12,500 tons, in 1907. The R. M. S. P. service to Australia (carried on for a short time in 1857) was resumed at the end of 1905, the company then acquiring a half interest in the Australian mail service. In 1907 the company acquired a half share in the "Shire" line, thus extending their operations to Japan, China and the far east. From London (Albert dock), the ports of call, including Port Said Suez, Penang, Singapore, Hongkong, Shanghai, Nagaski, Kobe and Yokohama. In 1908 the company acquired Messrs. Forwood Bros. and Co.'s line to Gibraltar, Morocco, Canary islands and Madeira. A service of cruising steamers (of 11,000 tons each) to Norway was successfully inaugurated in 1909. The winter of 1909-10 has witnessed the placing of the New York station of a service of yachting cruises by R. M. S. P. Avon (11,072 tons), and the establishment of a regular service from New York to Bermuda. Two new intercolonial mail steamers, R. M. S. P. Berbice and Balantia (twin-screws), were placed on the West India station at the end of 1909.

In June, 1910, the R. M. S. P. arranged to purchase the whole of the Pacific Steam Navigation company's share capital at par value of £25 per share, thus acquiring control of the fleet and interests of the Pacific S. N. Co. in the South American trade, the fleets of the combined companies thus practically circumnavigating the whole of South America.

The company had a fleet of 45 steamers with tonnage of 195,000 before purchasing the Glen line of nine steamers of 40,586 tons.

FIREMAN DROWNS FROM PRINCESS MARY

W. Lynton Loses His Life When Seeking to Board Steamer British Columbia at Ladysmith.

The steamer Princess Mary returned from Comox and way ports yesterday with her flag at half-mast, having lost a fireman, W. Lynton, when coaling at Ladysmith at one o'clock yesterday morning. The fireman fell from a ladder when boarding the steamer British Columbia, which lay nearby and was drowned.

Lynton, with one of the deckhands of the Princess Mary, went to see a friend who was working on board the British Columbia when the Princess Mary was coaling, with the British Columbia lying further up the dock. Lynton went first and slipped and fell, evidently striking his head against the steamer's guard as he went down. His comrade shouted an alarm and threw a life-preserver down. He got a rope and shipmates from the Princess Mary ran with lamps, but no trace was seen of the drowned man. His body was not recovered when the Princess Mary left Ladysmith, but telegraphic advices report it was found later in the morning.

The Princess Mary left last night for Clayoquot and way ports of the west coast in the place of the steamer Tees which is undergoing an overhauling.

Windmill Fire Mystery

Special police investigation has been ordered of the recent fire at Quesnel by which the windmill for many years maintained by the James Reid Estate, which owns a considerable proportion of the town realty, was completely destroyed. The windmill was on the Fraser river foreshore and was utilized to draw water from the river for use in the house, stables and gardens. Recently members of a local public body served notice upon the manager of the estate demanding the removal of the windmill, allegedly because it was on government foreshore land. The Reid Estate declined to recognize the right of the local body to act in the premises and a few days later the windmill was burned, allegedly by incendiarism.

Covered With Eczema

Cured by Two Bottles D. D. D.

On March 21, 1910, Mr. Angus McMillan, of Port Hood, N. S., wrote us:

"My little boy three years old was covered from head to foot with eczema. I tried over 20 different kinds of salves and washes but could not see any improvement—in fact it seemed to be getting worse.

I was about discouraged and had lost faith in all kinds of so-called eczema cures, when I saw an ad. telling about D. D. D. Prescription. I sent for sample bottle and the third application convinced me that I had at last got a sure cure. Two bottles effected a complete cure."

What D. D. D. did for this little boy, it will do for any skin sufferer. A mild, soothing liquid made up of Oil of Wintergreen, Thymol, Glycerine and other ingredients, it penetrates to the root of the trouble and washes the disease germs out.

ICE SKATING RINK FOR THE WILLOWS

Plans Approved for Building Covering Area 322ft x 144ft —To be Completed in Three Months

While the regular meeting of the Oak Bay council was not held last night owing to the absence of several of the councillors and the inability to form a quorum, the plans submitted by Mr. Thomas Hooper, architect, for the new artificial ice skating rink to be erected by the Victoria Arena Co. at the corner of Cadboro Bay road and Empress street, were approved by Reeve Henderson and the permit for the same will likely be given today. Reeve Henderson, and Councillors Hargreaves and Noble were present. The others, with the exception of Councillor Pemberton, who is ill, are absent from the city.

The new rink, which will be a frame wooden building, will cover an area 322 feet by 144 feet. The ice skating surface measures 210 feet by 85 feet, which is a very spacious surface for the lovers of skating. Waiting rooms, a dining room for all day visitors to the rink, club rooms for hockey clubs and dressing rooms, are among the accommodations provided. The work of erecting the building should be completed within the next three months.

For those who do not skate two galleries, one reserved and the other unreserved, have been allowed for in the building, making in all something like a three storey building.

Mr. Lester Patrick, a well known ice hockey player, is managing the affairs of the local company.

The commerce of this city is growing with such rapidity that some of the present office buildings are inadequate to meet the demands made upon them. The designing of commercial structures is both an art and science. Space is valuable and must be used to best advantage. Pleasing architectural affect should be secured without adding much to the cost of the building.

In his studios in the board of trade building Mr. E. Stanley Mitton is showing a number of interesting photographs, plans and sketches of office buildings, apartment houses and residences. All interested in the practical application of architecture will be welcomed to view them.

Mr. Mitton has associated with him in the management of his Victoria business an architect of broad training and experience both in the Old Country and in Canada, Mr. Herbert T. Whitehead. No firm in Canada is so fully qualified to deal with high-class residence work, office buildings, apartment houses, hotels, etc., and this fact is so well known that no further comment is necessary. Many of the most attractive and substantial constructions in Victoria, Westminster and numerous other western cities are permanent witnesses of the merit of their work.

RINK CAPTAINED BY MR. OLIPHANT WINS

Local Champion with Fellow Canadians Makes Successful Tour of Scotland—Win Many Matches

Victoria's crack bowler, Mr. William Oliphant, the organizer of the Beacon Hill club and the winner of the local championship on more than one occasion, has returned from Scotland after an extended sojourn. He left this city, accompanied by Mrs. Oliphant, early in May and both have been renewing acquaintances and having an altogether enjoyable time ever since.

In the course of his trip through Canada en route to the Atlantic seaboard Mr. Oliphant carried out a cherished plan. He hunted up some of his old bowling friends, scattered through the Dominion, and induced them to cross "the pond" with the idea of entering some of the Old Country tournaments. He had no difficulty in forming a rink and comes back flushed with victory. The Canadians practically swept everything before them. They won nineteen of twenty-one matches—it was just such another tour as was made by the Canadian curlers not so long ago.

Naturally Mr. Oliphant has little to say that has not to do, directly or indirectly, with the pastime to which he is so devoted and of which he is a master. He was wrapped up in it during the greater part of his visit in the old land. He and those with him were received by the different Glasgow clubs and by the organizations of other parts of Scotland with the most flattering hospitality. Their best players were pitted against the Canadians on every occasion—the highest compliment it is possible to convey—and, with almost monotonous regularity, the home representatives were trounced after close and thrilling matches.

While on tour the Glasgow News published a picture of the Canadians and with it the following, which explains itself: "A team of Canadian bowlers at present playing various clubs in Scotland, pitted their strength against Jordanhill the other day, and won by 13 up. The Canadians are captained by Mr. William Oliphant, a Glasgow man, who, although now resident in Victoria, British Columbia, is still on the playing list at Jordanhill. Mr. Oliphant has twice won the single handed championship of Victoria. His team at present touring Scotland have played 21 matches, of which they have won 19. Naturally they are proud of this record and on their return home will ever remember with pleasure their hospitable reception and keen games with friends here."

Mr. Oliphant was among the distinguished company which witnessed the launching of the new Anchor liner Cameronian on May 26th and was in attendance at the luncheon which marked that notable event. He states that this vessel establishes a new mark in point of speed, accommodation, etc., among modern Atlantic passenger ships.

VANCOUVER AND VICTORIA MATCHED

Splendid Cricket Game Promised for Next Saturday—Preparing for Tournament

Garrison C. C. play Strawberry Vale C. C. at Work Point today at 2 p. m.

For the first time this year Victoria will have a truly representative team in the field on Saturday next when she will meet her old time rival Vancouver on the Jubilee Hospital grounds for an all day game.

This match has always been considered one of the local cricket attractions. The grounds are being placed in readiness to receive a goodly gathering. Victoria XI. will be: L. S. V. York, captain, J. W. D. York, A. Martin, M. Cane, J. H. Gillespie, P. A. Sparks, F. Gallihier, G. L. Wright, H. A. Collisson, W. F. L. Pilkington and S. Gillespie.

A very decided counter attraction will be going on down Esquimalt way when the combined Navy-Esquimalt tournament team will try conclusions in an all day game with the Garrison on the Canteen grounds.

Already this once famous field is assuming its former condition. Brush has been cleared away, the outfield is being cut, hoses are playing and before cricket week is on a new turf pitch will be prepared.

Seattle makes the ninth entry for the cricket tournament. They include in their list one or two Portland men, but enter under their own name. If the players whose names are entered all take part Seattle stand a good chance of coming out on top.

The Frankford cricket team from Philadelphia will arrive, thirteen strong, in Victoria by boat via Vancouver on August 31, playing here September 1 and 2 and leaving by boat Sunday, September 3 for Seattle. A reception worthy of their visit is being planned for them.

Sherwood Magee's Case

CHICAGO, Aug. 1.—Directors of the National Baseball League, after spending the day considering the appeal of Outfielder Sherwood Magee, who was suspended for an attack on Umpire Fineran, are likely to spend a considerable portion of the night without deciding Magee's fate. After hearing numerous witnesses during the day, the board resumed tonight, and after several hours' discussion, seemed no nearer an agreement than at the dinner adjournment.

OBJECT TO DEVELOP SPIRIT OF PATRIOTISM

Hon. Dr. H. E. Young Proposes to Make Interesting Departure in Educational Life of Province

A genuine innovation, which is a somewhat radical and at the same time exceedingly interesting departure in connection with the educational work of British Columbia, has just been decided upon by the Minister of Education, Hon. Dr. Young, whose very deep and practical interest in all matters appertaining to the progressive development of the educational affairs of British Columbia will be at once conceded and appreciated by all residents of the province, regardless of party differences in political faiths. The innovation is one the authorship of which is the Minister's alone, the essential principle and object of which is to inspire, foster and develop the spirit of patriotism by a simple and intelligent presentation to the children of the public schools of all that is most admirable in the accomplishment of the great statesmen, soldiers, naval heroes, scientists and leaders in useful thought among the people of Canada and of the Empire.

This most desirable educational campaign it is designed to prosecute and advance by means of a small pamphlet or public school magazine of sixteen pages or thereabouts, to be printed under government auspices and distributed monthly to all the public school pupils from the third grade up, the expectation being that a monthly issue of 20,000 copies will be required.

The publication will be conducted on lines that will tend to foster and promote a spirit of true Imperialism. The contributions each month will include two or three of strictly Canadian interest and two or three Imperialistic the admirable accomplishments of Canadians in all the fields of highly useful and patriotic endeavor being given special prominence, but the central idea being to promote the unity of Empire. It is expected that the department will be in a position to issue the first number soon after the resumption of the schools, in early September.

Epitome of History

The publication will be freely illustrated by means of line engravings, while the regular contributors will include Miss Maria Lawson and a number of naval and military officers, prominent clergymen, students of statecraft, educationists, and eminent specialists in the domains of science and industrial activity. Special features will be made of historical sketches dealing simply and plainly, in style specially adapted to win the attention of and be thoroughly understood by youthful readers, of the careers of leading British statesmen, soldiers and naval heroes, and captains of industry, incidents of Canadian and British history, etc., etc. More particularly will attention be given to sketches of the lives of eminent Canadians who have distinguished themselves as statesmen, in the army or navy of their country and in the fields of science, invention and industrial activity.

From one-third to one-half of the space of the forthcoming publication it is proposed to reserve for a record of the achievements of those who have played a patriotic part in the upbuilding of Canada, who have gone from Canada to serve the king and flag in the Army or the navy, who have won Rhodes scholarships, or who have graduated from the schools of this country to play the part of useful and patriotic men and women in the educational work of the Dominion and in the advancement of national greatness and Imperial unity.

Non-Partisan Policy

Such a policy will readily be recognized as being in thorough and complete harmony with the well known ideas of Hon. Dr. Young as Minister of Education and his determination to preserve the policy of the Educational Department as altogether non-Partisan and non-political. The essence of the purpose aimed at in the proposed publication is to interest and inspire the pupils of the British Columbia public schools so as to promote their development as staunch and useful Canadians, and true and worthy British subjects.

The distribution of the new school journal will be made through the Free Text Book department and preliminary circulars will be sent to the various trustee boards fully explaining the purposes in view, and to the teachers requesting them to see to the proper distribution of the journal and to explain to their teachers its meaning and significance. The pupils will be requested to take each number home and read its several articles, and the teachers will be invited when opportunity presents itself, to review the contents of each number and talk them over with the scholars, with a view to seeing that they obtain a thorough understanding of the various articles and their significance.

Every care will be taken that the contents of each number shall be as agreeably diversified as possible in character and of such a nature as to interest youthful readers, be easily understood by them, and systematically and tactfully promote the development of the spirit of patriotism, Canadianism and love of a united Empire.

TRADING SLOW IN STOCK MARKET

Railway Reports Showing Decreased Revenues are Depressing—Canadian Pacific Loses Two Points on Day

NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—Trading in the local stock market fell to slender proportions today soon after the first hour. The opening was irregular, and by noon losses of a point were registered by Union Pacific, Northern Pacific, Reading, American Tobacco preferred and several of the specialties, with a two-point decline in Canadian Pacific, which rumors ascribed to selling by Berlin.

The list dragged along at this level for the rest of the session, alternating between partial recoveries and further losses, which latter included Pacific Mail. In the last hour lower prices were recorded under the influence of a number of unattractive railroad reports. These included Union Pacific and Southern Pacific, with net losses for June of $233,000 and $494,000 respectively, while for the fiscal year Union Pacific's revenues decreased $4,300,000 and those of Southern Pacific, $4,447,000. Atchison for June fell over $500,000 in net, but its revenues for the year increased $1,565,000. Illinois Central gained $2,388,000 over the preceding fiscal year and Missouri, Kansas and Texas scored a net increase of over $1,000,000.

Copper stocks were lower in sympathy with the general market, although exports of the metal for July were almost 12,000 tons in excess of those for the same month last year.

On the "curb" Standard Oil lost 15 points, selling down to 640. Almost the one feature of the money market was the hardening of rates for commercial paper.

The bond market was lower, with further weakness in American Tobacco issues. Total sales (par value) $1,678,000. United States 2s declined 1-8 per cent. on call.

Unjustly Punished.

PARIS, July 29.—After serving 17 years' penal servitude for a crime he did not commit, Charles Michaud, farmer, of Mornat, in the Creuse Department, had his innocence legally established at the assize court of Bourges. Michaud lived close to an elderly man, who was found one morning with his throat cut. The motive of the crime was robbery. A cravat picked up near the body was declared to belong to Michaud. On his arrest he strongly protested his innocence, but a number of witnesses declared they had seen Michaud in the neighborhood of the murdered man's house at the time the crime was committed, and Michaud was sentenced to penal servitude for life.

After 14 years of his term had gone by another convict confessed to his fellow prisoner that he was the murderer. Michaud demanded a revision of his trial, which was granted three years ago. This has just been carried out, and after the hearing had lasted two days the jury were clearly satisfied that he was innocent, and he has accordingly been set at liberty. Michaud received a great ovation on leaving the court. For his long period of undeserved punishment he has been awarded a solatium of $6,000.
